CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains, or incorporates by reference, certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements consist of any statement other than a recitation of historical facts and include, but are not limited to: (1) projections of revenues, expenses, income or loss, earnings or loss per share, cash flow, or other financial items; (2) statements of our plans and objectives, including those related to releases of products or services and restructuring activities; (3) statements of future financial or operating performance, including the impact of tax items thereon; and (4) statements of assumptions underlying such statements. Activision Blizzard, Inc. generally uses words such as “outlook,” “forecast,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “to be,” “plan,” “aims,” “believes,” “may,” “might,” “expects,” “intends,” “seeks,” “anticipates,” “estimate,” “future,” “positioned,” “potential,” “project,” “remain,” “scheduled,” “set to,” “subject to,” “upcoming,” and other similar words and expressions to help identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to business and economic risks, reflect management’s current expectations, estimates, and projections about our business, and are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict.

We caution that a number of important factors, many of which are beyond our control, could cause our actual future results and other future circumstances to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: the ongoing global impact of a novel strain of coronavirus which emerged in December 2019 (“COVID-19”) (including, without limitation, the potential for significant short- and long-term global unemployment and economic weakness and a resulting impact on global discretionary spending; potential strain on the retailers and distributors who sell our physical product to customers; effects on our ability to release our content in a timely manner; the impact of large-scale intervention by the Federal Reserve and other central banks around the world, including the impact on interest rates; and volatility in foreign exchange rates); our ability to consistently deliver popular, high-quality titles in a timely manner, which has been made more difficult as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; concentration of revenue among a small number of franchises; our ability to satisfy the expectations of consumers with respect to our brands, games, services, and/or business practices; our ability to attract, retain and motivate skilled personnel; rapid changes in technology and industry standards; competition, including from other forms of entertainment; increasing importance of revenues derived from digital distribution channels; risks associated with the retail sales business model; the continued growth in the scope and complexity of our business, including the diversion of management time and attention to issues relating to the operations of our newly acquired or started businesses and the potential impact of our expansion into new businesses on our existing businesses; substantial influence of third-party platform providers over our products and costs; risks associated with transitions to next-generation consoles; success and availability of video game consoles manufactured by third parties; risks associated with the free-to-play business model, including dependence on a relatively small number of consumers for a significant portion of revenues and profits from any given game; our ability to realize the expected financial and operational benefits of, and effectively implement and manage, our restructuring actions; our ability to quickly adjust our cost structure in response to sudden changes in demand; risks and costs associated with legal proceedings; intellectual property claims; changes in tax rates or exposure to additional tax liabilities, as well as the outcome of current or future tax disputes; our ability to sell products at assumed pricing levels; reliance on external developers for development of some of our software products; the amount of our debt and the limitations imposed by the covenants in the agreements governing our debt; the seasonality in the sale of our products; counterparty risks relating to customers, licensees, licensors, and manufacturers, which have been magnified as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; risks associated with our use of open source software; piracy and unauthorized copying of our products; insolvency or business failure of any of our partners, which has been magnified as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; risks and uncertainties of conducting business outside the United States (the “U.S.”); increasing regulation of our business, products, and distribution in key territories; compliance with continually evolving laws and regulations concerning data privacy; reliance on servers and networks to operate our games and our proprietary online gaming service; potential data breaches and other cybersecurity risks; and the other factors identified in “Risk Factors” included in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020.

The forward-looking statements contained herein are based on information available to Activision Blizzard, Inc. as of the date of this filing and we assume no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements. Although these forward-looking statements are believed to be true when made, they may ultimately prove to be incorrect. These statements are not guarantees of our future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors, some of which are beyond our control and may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

Activision Blizzard, Inc.’s names, abbreviations thereof, logos, and product and service designators are all either the registered or unregistered trademarks or trade names of Activision Blizzard, Inc. All other product or service names are the property of their respective owners. All dollar amounts referred to in, or contemplated by, this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q refer to U.S. dollars, unless otherwise explicitly stated to the contrary.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

1. Description of Business and Basis of Consolidation and Presentation

Activision Blizzard, Inc. is a leading global developer and publisher of interactive entertainment content and services. We develop and distribute content and services on video game consoles, personal computers (“PC”s), and mobile devices. We also operate esports leagues and offer digital advertising within some of our content. The terms “Activision Blizzard,” the “Company,” “we,” “us,” and “our” are used to refer collectively to Activision Blizzard, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Our Segments

Based upon our organizational structure, we conduct our business through three reportable segments, each of which is a leading global developer and publisher of interactive entertainment content and services based primarily on our internally developed intellectual properties.

(i) Activision Publishing, Inc.

Activision Publishing, Inc. (“Activision”) delivers content through both premium and free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from full-game and in-game sales, as well as by licensing software to third-party or related-party companies that distribute Activision products. Activision’s key product franchise is Call of Duty®, a first-person action franchise. Activision also includes the activities of the Call of Duty League™, a global professional esports league with city-based teams.

(ii) Blizzard Entertainment, Inc.

Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. (“Blizzard”) delivers content through both premium and free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from full-game and in-game sales, subscriptions, and by licensing software to third-party or related-party companies that distribute Blizzard products. Blizzard also maintains a proprietary online gaming service, Blizzard Battle.net®, which facilitates digital distribution of Blizzard content and selected Activision content, online social connectivity, and the creation of user-generated content. Blizzard’s key product franchises include: World of Warcraft®, a subscription-based massive multi-player online role-playing franchise; Hearthstone®, an online collectible card franchise based in the Warcraft universe; Diablo®, an action role-playing franchise; and Overwatch®, a team-based first-person action franchise. Blizzard also includes the activities of the Overwatch League™, a global professional esports league with city-based teams.

(iii) King Digital Entertainment

King Digital Entertainment (“King”) delivers content primarily through free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from in-game sales and in-game advertising on the mobile platform. King’s key product franchise is Candy Crush™, a “match three” franchise.

Other

We also engage in other businesses that do not represent reportable segments, including the Activision Blizzard Distribution (“Distribution”) business, which consists of operations in Europe that provide warehousing, logistics, and sales distribution services to third-party publishers of interactive entertainment software, our own publishing operations, and manufacturers of interactive entertainment hardware.

Basis of Consolidation and Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) for interim reporting. Accordingly, certain notes or other information that are normally required by U.S. GAAP have been condensed or omitted if they substantially duplicate the disclosures contained in our annual audited consolidated financial statements. Additionally, the year-end condensed consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited financial statements but does not include all disclosures required by U.S. GAAP. Accordingly, the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020.

The preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Generally, making these estimates and developing our assumptions requires consideration of forecasted information, which, in context of the COVID-19 pandemic, involves additional uncertainty. While there was no material impact to our estimates in the current period, in future periods, facts and circumstances could change and impact our estimates. Additionally, actual results could differ from these estimates and assumptions. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for the fair statement of our financial position and results of operations in accordance with U.S. GAAP (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) have been included in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts and operations of the Company. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior-year amounts to conform to the current period presentation.

2. Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements*Recently Adopted Accounting PronouncementsSimplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes*

In December 2019, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued new guidance which is intended to simplify various aspects to accounting for income taxes by removing certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 for recognizing deferred taxes for investments, performing an intraperiod allocation, and calculating income taxes in interim periods. The amendment also clarifies and amends certain areas of existing guidance to reduce complexity and improve consistency in the application of Topic 740. Generally the guidance must be applied prospectively upon adoption, with the exception of certain topics which are required to be applied on a retrospective or modified retrospective basis. On January 1, 2021, we adopted this new accounting standard and applied the topics in the manner required by the standard. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

3. Software Development and Intellectual Property Licenses

Our total capitalized software development costs of $490 million and $512 million, as of March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2021, respectively, primarily relates to internal development costs. As of both March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, capitalized intellectual property licenses were not material.

Amortization of capitalized software development costs and intellectual property licenses was as follows (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020
Amortization of capitalized software development costs and intellectual property licenses	$ 112	$ 83

4. Intangible Assets, Net

Intangible assets, net, consist of the following (amounts in millions):

At March 31, 2021
	Estimated useful lives	Gross carrying amount	Accumulated amortization	Net carrying amount
Acquired definite-lived intangible assets:
Internally-developed franchises	3 - 11 years	$ 1,154	$ (1,154)	$ —

Activision trademark	Indefinite			386
Acquired trade names	Indefinite			47
Total indefinite-lived intangible assets				$ 433
Total intangible assets, net				$ 446

(1) At March 31, 2021, the balances of the developed software intangible assets have been removed as such amounts were fully amortized in the prior year.

At December 31, 2020
	Estimated useful lives	Gross carrying amount	Accumulated amortization	Net carrying amount
Acquired definite-lived intangible assets:
Internally-developed franchises	3 - 11 years	$ 1,154	$ (1,151)	$ 3

Activision trademark	Indefinite			386
Acquired trade names	Indefinite			47
Total indefinite-lived intangible assets				$ 433
Total intangible assets, net				$ 451

Amortization expense of our intangible assets was $5 million and $33 million for the three months ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020, respectively.

5. Goodwill

The carrying amount of goodwill by reportable segment at both March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020 was as follows (amounts in millions):

	Activision	Blizzard	King	Total

6. Fair Value Measurements

The FASB literature regarding fair value measurements for certain assets and liabilities establishes a three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. This hierarchy requires entities to maximize the use of “observable inputs” and minimize the use of “unobservable inputs.” The three levels of inputs used to measure fair value are as follows:

- Level 1—Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2—Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data; and
- Level 3—Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities, including certain pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, and similar techniques that use significant unobservable inputs.

Fair Value Measurements on a Recurring Basis

The table below segregates all of our financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis into the most appropriate level within the fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used to determine the fair value at the measurement date (amounts in millions):

Foreign Currency Forward Contracts

Foreign Currency Forward Contracts Designated as Hedges (“Cash Flow Hedges”)

The total gross notional amounts and fair values of our Cash Flow Hedges, all of which have remaining maturities of 19 months or less as of March 31, 2021, are as follows (amounts in millions):

	As of March 31, 2021		As of December 31, 2020
	Notional amount	Fair value gain (loss)	Notional amount	Fair value gain (loss)
Foreign Currency:
Buy USD, Sell Euro	$ 850	$ 5	$ 542	$(24)

For the three months ended March 31, 2021 and 2020, pre-tax net realized gains (losses) associated with our Cash Flow Hedges that were reclassified out of “Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)” and into earnings were not material.

Foreign Currency Forward Contracts Not Designated as Hedges

The gross notional amounts and fair values of our foreign currency forward contracts not designated as hedges are as follows (amounts in millions):

	As of March 31, 2021		As of December 31, 2020
	Notional amount	Fair value gain (loss)	Notional amount	Fair value gain (loss)
Foreign Currency:
Buy USD, Sell GBP	$ 148	$(1)	$ 116	$(2)

For the three months ended March 31, 2021 and 2020, pre-tax net gains (losses) associated with these forward contracts were recorded in “General and administrative expenses” and were not material.

7. Deferred revenues

We record deferred revenues when cash payments are received or due in advance of the fulfillment of our associated performance obligations. The aggregate of the current and non-current balances of deferred revenues as of March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, were $1.5 billion and $1.7 billion, respectively. For the three months ended March 31, 2021, the additions to our deferred revenues balance were primarily due to cash payments received or due in advance of satisfying our performance obligations, while the reductions to our deferred revenues balance were primarily due to the recognition of revenues upon fulfillment of our performance obligations, all of which were in the ordinary course of business. During the three months ended March 31, 2021, $1.1 billion of revenues were recognized that were included in the deferred revenues balance at December 31, 2020. During the three months ended March 31, 2020, $0.8 billion of revenues were recognized that were included in the deferred revenues balance at December 31, 2019.

As of March 31, 2021, the aggregate amount of contracted revenues allocated to our unsatisfied performance obligations was $2.2 billion, which included our deferred revenues balances and amounts to be invoiced and recognized as revenue in future periods. We expect to recognize approximately $1.7 billion over the next 12 months, $0.4 billion in the subsequent 12-month period, and the remainder thereafter. This balance did not include an estimate for variable consideration arising from sales-based royalty license revenue in excess of the contractual minimum guarantee or any estimated amounts of variable consideration that are subject to constraint in accordance with the revenue standard.

8. Debt

Credit Facilities

As of March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, we had $1.5 billion available under a revolving credit facility (the “Revolver”) pursuant to a credit agreement entered into on October 11, 2013 (as amended thereafter and from time to time, the “Credit Agreement”). To date, we have not drawn on the Revolver and we were in compliance with the terms of the Credit Agreement as of March 31, 2021.

Refer to Note 13 contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 for further details regarding the Credit Agreement and its key terms.

Unsecured Senior Notes

As of March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, we had $3.7 billion of gross unsecured senior notes outstanding. A summary of our outstanding unsecured senior notes is as follows (amounts in millions):

Unsecured Senior Notes	Interest Rate	Semi-Annual Interest Payments Due On	Maturity	At March 31, 2021		At December 31, 2020
				Principal	Fair Value (Level 2)	Principal	Fair Value (Level 2)

Unamortized discount and deferred financing costs				(44)		(45)
Total net carrying amount				$ 3,606		$ 3,605

We were in compliance with the terms of the notes outstanding as of March 31, 2021. As of March 31, 2021, we have no contractual principal repayments of our long-term debt due within the next five years.

Refer to Note 13 contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 for further details regarding key terms under our indentures that govern our outstanding notes.

10. Operating Segments and Geographic Region

We have three reportable segments—Activision, Blizzard, and King. Our operating segments are consistent with the manner in which our operations are reviewed and managed by our Chief Executive Officer, who is our chief operating decision maker (“CODM”). The CODM reviews segment performance exclusive of: the impact of the change in deferred revenues and related cost of revenues with respect to certain of our online-enabled games; share-based compensation expense; amortization of intangible assets as a result of purchase price accounting; fees and other expenses (including legal fees, expenses, and accruals) related to acquisitions, associated integration activities, and financings; certain restructuring and related costs; and certain other non-cash charges. The CODM does not review any information regarding total assets on an operating segment basis, and accordingly, no disclosure is made with respect thereto.

Our operating segments are also consistent with our internal organizational structure, the way we assess operating performance and allocate resources, and the availability of separate financial information. We do not aggregate operating segments.

Information on reportable segment net revenues and operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2021 and 2020, are presented below (amounts in millions):

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2021

11. Restructuring

During 2019, we began implementing a plan aimed at refocusing our resources on our largest opportunities and removing unnecessary levels of complexity from certain parts of our business. We have been:

- increasing our investment in development for our largest, internally-owned franchises—across upfront releases, in-game content, mobile, and geographic expansion;
- reducing certain non-development and administrative-related costs across our business; and
- integrating our global and regional sales and “go-to-market,” partnerships, and sponsorships capabilities across the business, which we believe will enable us to provide better opportunities for talent, and greater expertise and scale on behalf of our business units.

The restructuring actions remain in progress as we continue to focus on these goals.

The following table summarizes accrued restructuring and related costs included in “Accrued expenses and other liabilities” in our condensed consolidated balance sheet and the cumulative charges incurred (amounts in millions):

	Severance and employee-related costs	Facilities and related costs	Other costs	Total

Activision	$ 1	$ 2
Blizzard	23	21
King	1	(1)
Other segments (1)	2	1
Total	$ 27	$ 23

(1) Includes charges outside of our reportable segments, including charges for our corporate and administrative functions.

During the three months ended March 31, 2021, we incurred additional restructuring charges that are not included in the plan discussed above. Such amounts were not material.

We expect to incur total aggregate pre-tax restructuring charges of approximately $310 million associated with the plan, of which we expect the remaining charges that have not yet been recognized to largely be incurred by the end of 2021. The charges associated with the plan are expected to relate to severance and employee-related costs (approximately 60% of the aggregate charge), facilities and related costs (approximately 20% of the aggregate charge), and other costs (approximately 20% of the aggregate charge), including charges for restructuring related fees and the write-down of assets. A substantial majority (approximately 70%) of the total pre-tax charge associated with the restructuring is expected to be paid in cash using amounts on hand, and such cash outlays are largely expected to be completed by the end of 2021. We do not expect to realize significant net savings in our total operating expenses as a result of our plan, as cost reductions in our selling, general and administrative activities is expected to be offset by increased investment in product development.

The total charges incurred through March 31, 2021 and total expected pre-tax restructuring charges related to the plan, by segment, inclusive of amounts already incurred and inclusive of certain inventory write-downs in prior years, are presented below (amounts in millions):

	Total Charges Incurred Through March 31, 2021	Total Charges Expected as of March 31, 2021
Activision	$ 33	$ 44
Blizzard	167	205
King	20	22
Other segments (1)	31	39
Total	$ 251	$ 310

(1) Includes charges outside of our reportable segments, including charges for our corporate and administrative functions.

12. Interest and Other Expense (Income), Net

Interest and other expense (income), net is comprised of the following (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020
Interest income	$ (1)	$ (16)
Interest expense from debt and amortization of debt discount and deferred financing costs	28	23
Other expense (income), net	3	1
Interest and other expense (income), net	$ 30	$ 8

13. Income Taxes

We account for our provision for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes, which requires an estimate of the annual effective tax rate for the full year to be applied to the interim period, taking into account year-to-date amounts and projected results for the full year. The provision for income taxes represents federal, foreign, state, and local income taxes. Our effective tax rate could be different from the statutory U.S. income tax rate due to: the effect of state and local income taxes; tax rates that apply to our foreign income (including U.S. tax on foreign income); research and development credits; and certain nondeductible expenses. Our effective tax rate could fluctuate significantly from quarter to quarter based on recurring and nonrecurring factors including, but not limited to: variations in the estimated and actual level of pre-tax income or loss by jurisdiction; changes in enacted tax laws and regulations, and interpretations thereof, including with respect to tax credits and state and local income taxes; developments in tax audits and other matters; recognition of excess tax benefits and tax deficiencies from share-based payments; and certain nondeductible expenses. Changes in judgment from the evaluation of new information resulting in the recognition, derecognition, or remeasurement of a tax position taken in a prior annual period are recognized separately in the quarter of the change.

The income tax expense of $146 million for the three months ended March 31, 2021, reflects, an effective tax rate of 19%, which is higher than the effective tax rate of 16% for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The increase is primarily due to a benefit recognized in the prior year in connection with the remeasurement of a U.S. deferred tax asset, partially offset by higher excess tax benefits from share-based payments in the current year.

The effective tax rate of 19% for the three months ended March 31, 2021, is lower than the U.S. statutory rate of 21%, primarily due to excess tax benefits from share-based payments in the current year.

Activision Blizzard's tax years after 2008 remain open to examination by certain major taxing jurisdictions to which we are subject. The Internal Revenue Service is currently examining our federal tax returns for the 2012 through 2016 tax years. We also have several state and non-U.S. audits pending. In addition, King's pre-acquisition tax returns remain open in various jurisdictions, primarily as a result of transfer pricing matters. We anticipate resolving King's transfer pricing for both pre- and post-acquisition tax years through a collaborative multilateral process with the tax authorities in the relevant jurisdictions, which include the U.K. and Sweden. While the outcome of this process remains uncertain, it could result in an agreement that changes the allocation of profits and losses between these and other relevant jurisdictions or a failure to reach an agreement that results in unilateral adjustments to the amount and timing of taxable income in the jurisdictions in which King operates.

In addition, certain of our subsidiaries are under examination or investigation, or may be subject to examination or investigation, by tax authorities in various jurisdictions. These proceedings may lead to adjustments or proposed adjustments to our taxes or provisions for uncertain tax positions. Such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, liquidity, or results of operations in the earlier of the period or periods in which the matters are resolved and in which appropriate tax provisions are taken into account in our financial statements. If we were to receive a materially adverse assessment from a taxing jurisdiction, we would plan to vigorously contest it and consider all of our options, including the pursuit of judicial remedies.

We regularly assess the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations and monitor the progress of ongoing discussions with tax authorities in determining the appropriateness of our tax provisions. The final resolution of the Company's global tax disputes is uncertain. There is significant judgment required in the analysis of disputes, including the probability determination and estimation of the potential exposure. Based on current information, in the opinion of the Company's management, the ultimate resolution of these matters is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, liquidity or results of operations.

14. Computation of Basic/Diluted Earnings Per Common Share

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per common share (amounts in millions, except per share data):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020
Numerator:
Consolidated net income	$ 619	$ 505
Denominator:
Denominator for basic earnings per common share—weighted-average common shares outstanding	775	769
Effect of dilutive stock options and awards under the treasury stock method	8	5
Denominator for basic earnings per common share—weighted-average dilutive common shares outstanding	783	774
Basic earnings per common share	$ 0.80	$ 0.66
Diluted earnings per common share	$ 0.79	$ 0.65

The vesting of certain of our employee-related restricted stock units is contingent upon the satisfaction of predefined performance measures. The shares underlying these equity awards are included in the weighted-average dilutive common shares only if the performance measures are met as of the end of the reporting period. Additionally, potential common shares are not included in the denominator of the diluted earnings per common share calculation when the inclusion of such shares would be anti-dilutive.

Weighted-average shares excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share were as follows (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020
Restricted stock units with performance measures not yet met	3	3
Anti-dilutive employee stock options	2	6

15. Capital Transactions

Repurchase Program

On January 27, 2021, our Board of Directors authorized a stock repurchase program under which we are authorized to repurchase up to $4.0 billion of our common stock during the two-year period from February 14, 2021 until the earlier of February 13, 2023 and a determination by the Board of Directors to discontinue the repurchase program. As of March 31, 2021, we have not repurchased any shares under this program.

Dividends

On February 4, 2021, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.47 per common share. Such dividend is payable on May 6, 2021, to shareholders of record at the close of business on April 15, 2021. We have recorded $365 million of dividends payable in "Accrued expenses and other liabilities" on our condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2021.

On February 6, 2020, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.41 per common share. On May 6, 2020, we made an aggregate cash dividend payment of $316 million to shareholders of record at the close of business on April 15, 2020.

16. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal Proceedings

We are party to routine claims, suits, investigations, audits, and other proceedings arising from the ordinary course of business, including with respect to intellectual property rights, contractual claims, labor and employment matters, regulatory matters, tax matters, unclaimed property matters, compliance matters, and collection matters. In the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel, such routine claims and lawsuits are not significant, and we do not expect them to have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Business Overview

Activision Blizzard, Inc. is a leading global developer and publisher of interactive entertainment content and services. We develop and distribute content and services on video game consoles, personal computers (“PC”s), and mobile devices. We also operate esports leagues and offer digital advertising within some of our content. The terms “Activision Blizzard,” the “Company,” “we,” “us,” and “our” are used to refer collectively to Activision Blizzard, Inc. and its subsidiaries. For a discussion of the history of the formation of our Company, including our year and form of incorporation, refer to Part I, Item 1 “Business” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019.

Our Segments

Based upon our organizational structure, we conduct our business through three reportable segments, each of which is a leading global developer and publisher of interactive entertainment content and services based primarily on our internally developed intellectual properties.

(i) Activision Publishing, Inc.

Activision Publishing, Inc. (“Activision”) delivers content through both premium and free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from full-game and in-game sales, as well as by licensing software to third-party or related-party companies that distribute Activision products. Activision’s key product franchise is Call of Duty®, a first-person action franchise. Activision also includes the activities of the Call of Duty League™, a global professional esports league with city-based teams.

(ii) Blizzard Entertainment, Inc.

Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. (“Blizzard”) delivers content through both premium and free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from full-game and in-game sales, subscriptions, and by licensing software to third-party or related-party companies that distribute Blizzard products. Blizzard also maintains a proprietary online gaming service, Blizzard Battle.net®, which facilitates digital distribution of Blizzard content and selected Activision content, online social connectivity, and the creation of user-generated content. Blizzard’s key product franchises include: World of Warcraft®, a subscription-based massive multi-player online role-playing franchise; Hearthstone®, an online collectible card franchise based in the Warcraft universe; Diablo®, an action role-playing franchise; and Overwatch®, a team-based first-person action franchise. Blizzard also includes the activities of the Overwatch League™, a global professional esports league with city-based teams.

(iii) King Digital Entertainment

King Digital Entertainment (“King”) delivers content primarily through free-to-play offerings and primarily generates revenue from in-game sales and in-game advertising on the mobile platform. King’s key product franchise is Candy Crush™, a “match three” franchise.

Other

We also engage in other businesses that do not represent reportable segments, including the Activision Blizzard Distribution (“Distribution”) business, which consists of operations in Europe that provide warehousing, logistics, and sales distribution services to third-party publishers of interactive entertainment software, our own publishing operations, and manufacturers of interactive entertainment hardware.

Impacts of the Global COVID-19 Pandemic

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus (“COVID-19”) emerged and has since extensively impacted global health and the economic environment. On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization (“WHO”) characterized COVID-19 as a pandemic. In an effort to contain the spread of COVID-19, domestic and international governments around the world enacted various measures, including orders to close all businesses not deemed “essential,” quarantine orders for individuals to stay in their homes or places of residence, and to practice social distancing when engaging in essential activities. We anticipate that these actions and the ongoing global health crisis caused by COVID-19 will continue to negatively impact many business activities and financial markets across the globe.

During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic, our business experienced an increase in demand for certain of our products and services as a result of the stay-at-home orders enacted in various regions as players had more time to engage with our games. We have, however, seen a moderation in these trends in some regions since the stay-at-home orders were originally enacted earlier in 2020 and it is uncertain at this time how our business could be impacted as stay-at-home orders continue to be reduced or are lifted completely.

In an effort to protect the health and safety of our employees, the majority of our workforce continues to work from home and we have placed restrictions on non-essential business travel. Additionally, thus far, our business has been able to operate with minimal disruption to our game titles' published release dates.

The full extent of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business, reputation, financial condition, results of operations, income, revenue, profitability, cash flows, liquidity, or stock price will depend on numerous evolving factors that we are not able to fully predict at this time. We will continue to actively monitor the developments of the COVID-19 pandemic and may take further actions that could alter our business operations as may be required by federal, state, local, or foreign authorities, or that we determine are in the best interests of our employees, customers, partners, and shareholders.

Refer to Part I, Item 1A "Risk Factors" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 for additional details on risks and uncertainties regarding the impacts of the global COVID-19 pandemic on our business, reputation, financial condition, results of operations, income, revenue, profitability, cash flows, liquidity, and stock price.

Business Results and Highlights

Financial Results

For the three months ended March 31, 2021:

- consolidated net revenues increased 27% to $2.28 billion, while consolidated operating income increased 30% to $795 million, as compared to consolidated net revenues of $1.79 billion and consolidated operating income of $612 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020;
- diluted earnings per common share increased 22% to $0.79, as compared to $0.65 for the three months ended March 31, 2020; and
- cash flows from operating activities were $844 million, an increase of 470%, as compared to $148 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020.

Since certain of our games are hosted online or include significant online functionality that represents a separate performance obligation, we defer the transaction price allocable to the online functionality from the sale of these games and recognize the attributable revenues over the relevant estimated service periods, which are generally less than a year. Net revenues and operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2021, include a net effect of $209 million and $132 million, respectively, from the recognition of deferred net revenues and related cost of revenues.

Additionally, for the both three months ended March 31, 2021 and 2020, 11% of total net revenues recognized were from revenue sources that were recognized at a "point-in-time," while "over-time and other" revenues were the remaining 89% of total net revenues. Revenue recognized at a "point-in-time" is primarily comprised of the portion of revenue from software products that is recognized when the customer takes control of the product (i.e., upon delivery of the software product) and revenues from our Distribution business. "Over-time and other revenue" is primarily comprised of revenue associated with the online functionality of our games, in-game purchases, and subscriptions.

Operating Metrics

The following operating metrics are key performance indicators that we use to evaluate our business. The key drivers of changes in our operating metrics are presented in the order of significance.

Net bookings and In-game net bookings

We monitor net bookings and in-game net bookings as key operating metrics in evaluating the performance of our business because they enable an analysis of performance based on the timing of actual transactions with our customers and provide a more timely indication of trends in our operating results. Net bookings is the net amount of products and services sold digitally or sold-in physically in the period, and includes license fees, merchandise, and publisher incentives, among others. Net bookings is equal to net revenues excluding the impact from deferrals. In-game net bookings primarily includes the net amount of microtransactions and downloadable content sold during the period, and is equal to in-game net revenues excluding the impact from deferrals.

Net bookings and in-game net bookings were as follows (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020	Increase (Decrease)
Net bookings	$ 2,066	$ 1,522	$ 544
In-game net bookings	$ 1,343	$ 956	$ 387

Net bookings

The increase in net bookings for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to:

- a $372 million increase in Activision net bookings, driven by higher net bookings from (1) Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War (which was released in November 2020, and when referred to herein, is inclusive of Call of Duty: Warzone™ following the release of Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War Season 1 content on December 16, 2020) as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare (which was released on October 2019, and when referred to herein, is inclusive of Call of Duty: Warzone from its release in March 2020 through December 16, 2020), (2) Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4, which was released in October 2018, and (3) Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019;
- an $111 million increase in King net bookings driven by higher net bookings from in-game player purchases and advertising, primarily in the Candy Crush franchise; and
- a $31 million increase in Blizzard net bookings, driven by higher net bookings from World of Warcraft, which includes the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands, partially offset by lower net bookings from Warcraft III: Reforged™, which was released in January 2020.

In-game net bookings

The increase in in-game net bookings for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a $243 million increase in Activision in-game net bookings, an $81 million increase in King in-game net bookings, and a $63 million increase in Blizzard in-game net bookings, primarily driven by the same factors as noted for net bookings above.

Monthly Active Users

We monitor monthly active users (“MAUs”) as a key measure of the overall size of our user base. MAUs are the number of individuals who accessed a particular game in a given month. We calculate average MAUs in a period by adding the total number of MAUs in each of the months in a given period and dividing that total by the number of months in the period. An individual who accesses two of our games would be counted as two users. In addition, due to technical limitations, for Activision and King, an individual who accesses the same game on two platforms or devices in the relevant period would be counted as two users. For Blizzard, an individual who accesses the same game on two platforms or devices in the relevant period would generally be counted as a single user. In certain instances, we rely on third parties to publish our games. In these instances, MAU data is based on information provided to us by those third parties, or, if final data is not available, reasonable estimates of MAUs for these third-party published games.

The number of MAUs for a given period can be significantly impacted by the timing of new content releases, since new releases may cause a temporary surge in MAUs. Accordingly, although we believe that overall trending in the number of MAUs can be a meaningful performance metric, period-to-period fluctuations may not be indicative of longer-term trends. The following table details our average MAUs on a sequential quarterly basis for each of our reportable segments (amounts in millions):

	March 31, 2021	December 31, 2020	September 30, 2020	June 30, 2020	March 31, 2020
Activision	150	128	111	125	102
Blizzard	27	29	30	32	32
King	258	240	249	271	273
Total	435	397	390	428	407

Average MAUs increased by 38 million, or 10%, for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended December 31, 2020, primarily due to:

- an increase in average MAUs for Activision, driven by (1) the December 2020 release of Call of Duty: Mobile in China and (2) Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020; and
- an increase in average MAUs for King, driven by (1) the Candy Crush franchise and (2) the release of Crash Bandicoot: On the Run! in March 2021.

Average MAUs increased by 28 million, or 7%, for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, primarily due to an increase in Activision’s average MAUs, driven by (1) the December 2020 release of Call of Duty: Mobile in China and (2) Call of Duty: Modern Warfare and Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, both of which benefited from the March 2020 release of Call of Duty: Warzone. The increase was partially offset by a decrease in King’s average MAUs, driven by the Candy Crush franchise.

Consolidated Statements of Operations Data

The following table sets forth condensed consolidated statements of operations data for the periods indicated (amounts in millions) and as a percentage of total net revenues, except for cost of revenues, which are presented as a percentage of associated revenues:

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021		2020
Net revenues
Product sales	$ 675	30 %	$ 543	30 %
In-game, subscription, and other revenues	1,600	70	1,245	70

Income tax expense	146	6	99	6
Net income	$ 619	27 %	$ 505	28 %

Consolidated Net Revenues

The key drivers of changes in our consolidated results, operating segment results, and sources of liquidity are presented in the order of significance.

The following table summarizes our consolidated net revenues and in-game net revenues (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Consolidated net revenues	$ 2,275	$ 1,788	$ 487	27 %
In-game net revenues (1)	1,323	935	388	41

(1) In-game net revenues primarily includes the net amount of revenue recognized for microtransactions and downloadable content during the period.

Consolidated Net Revenues

The increase in consolidated net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily driven by an increase in revenues of $524 million due to higher revenues from:

- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, which was released in October 2019, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4, which was released in October 2018;
- World of Warcraft, which includes the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands;
- the Candy Crush franchise;
- Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019; and
- Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020, as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare.

This increase was partially offset by a net decrease in revenues of $37 million, driven by various other franchises and titles.

In-game Net Revenues

The increase in in-game net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily driven by an increase in in-game net revenues of $380 million due to higher in-game revenues from:

- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4;
- the Candy Crush franchise;
- Call of Duty: Mobile; and
- World of Warcraft.

The remaining net increase of $8 million was driven by various other franchises and titles.

Foreign Exchange Impact

Changes in foreign exchange rates had a positive impact of approximately $78 million on our consolidated net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the same periods in the previous year. The changes are primarily due to changes in the value of the U.S. dollar relative to the euro and the British pound.

Operating Segment Results

We have three reportable segments—Activision, Blizzard, and King. Our operating segments are consistent with the manner in which our operations are reviewed and managed by our Chief Executive Officer, who is our chief operating decision maker (“CODM”). The CODM reviews segment performance exclusive of: the impact of the change in deferred revenues and related cost of revenues with respect to certain of our online-enabled games; share-based compensation expense; amortization of intangible assets as a result of purchase price accounting; fees and other expenses (including legal fees, expenses, and accruals) related to acquisitions, associated integration activities, and financings; certain restructuring and related costs; and certain other non-cash charges. The CODM does not review any information regarding total assets on an operating segment basis, and accordingly, no disclosure is made with respect thereto.

Our operating segments are also consistent with our internal organizational structure, the way we assess operating performance and allocate resources, and the availability of separate financial information. We do not aggregate operating segments.

Information on the reportable segment net revenues and segment operating income are presented below (amounts in millions):

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2021				Increase / (Decrease)
	Activision	Blizzard	King	Total	Activision	Blizzard	King	Total

(1) Includes other income and expenses outside of our reportable segments, including our Distribution business and unallocated corporate income and expenses.

- (2) Reflects the net effect from recognition (deferral) of deferred net revenues, along with related cost of revenues, on certain of our online-enabled products.
- (3) Intersegment revenues reflect licensing and service fees charged between segments.

Segment Net Revenues

Activision

The increase in Activision's segment net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from:

- Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020, as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, which was released in October 2019;
- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4, which was released in October 2018; and
- Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019.

Blizzard

The increase in Blizzard's segment net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from World of Warcraft, which includes the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands.

The increase was partially offset by lower revenues from:

- Warcraft III: Reforged, which was released in January 2020; and
- The Overwatch League, whose current season commenced in April 2021 while the 2020 season commenced in February 2020.

King

The increase in King's segment net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from in-game player purchases and advertising, primarily in the Candy Crush franchise.

Segment Income from Operations

Activision

The increase in Activision's segment operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to:

- higher segment net revenues; and
- lower marketing cost for the Call of Duty franchise, as the prior year included additional spending to support the release of Call of Duty: Warzone in March 2020, as well as Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019.

This increase was partially offset by:

- higher cost of revenues driven by the higher segment net revenues; and
- higher product development costs driven by increased personnel costs to support the Call of Duty franchise, including higher bonuses as a result of strong business performance.

Blizzard

The increase in Blizzard’s segment operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher segment net revenues, partially offset by an increase in product development costs to support game development efforts.

King

The increase in King’s segment operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher segment net revenues.

This increase was partially offset by:

- higher marketing costs;
- higher service provider fees, primarily digital storefront fees (e.g. fees retained by Google Inc. (“Google”) and Apple Inc. (“Apple”) for our sales on their platforms), driven by the higher in-game player purchases; and
- higher product development costs.

Foreign Exchange Impact

Changes in foreign exchange rates had a positive impact of approximately $57 million on reportable segment net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the same period in the previous year. The changes are primarily due to changes in the value of the U.S. dollar relative to the euro and the British pound.

Consolidated Results

Net Revenues by Distribution Channel

The following table details our consolidated net revenues by distribution channel (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020	Increase (Decrease)
Net revenues by distribution channel:
Digital online channels (1)	$ 2,006	$ 1,441	$ 565
Retail channels	149	221	(72)
Other (2)	120	126	(6)
Total consolidated net revenues	$ 2,275	$ 1,788	$ 487

(1) Net revenues from “Digital online channels” include revenues from digitally-distributed downloadable content, microtransactions, subscriptions, and products, as well as licensing royalties.

(2) Net revenues from “Other” primarily includes revenues from our Distribution business, the Overwatch League, and the Call of Duty League.

Digital Online Channel Net Revenues

The increase in net revenues from digital online channels for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from:

- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, which was released in October 2019, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4, which was released in October 2018;

- Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020, as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare;
- World of Warcraft, which includes the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands;
- the Candy Crush franchise; and
- Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019.

Retail Channel Net Revenues

The decrease in net revenues from retail channels for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to lower revenues from Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare.

Net Revenues by Platform

The following table details our consolidated net revenues by platform (amounts in millions):

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020	Increase (Decrease)
Net revenues by platform:
Console	$ 799	$ 594	$ 205
PC	622	498	124
Mobile and ancillary (1)	734	570	164
Other (2)	120	126	(6)
Total consolidated net revenues	$ 2,275	$ 1,788	$ 487

(1) Net revenues from “Mobile and ancillary” include revenues from mobile devices, as well as non-platform-specific game-related revenues, such as standalone sales of toys and accessories.

(2) Net revenues from “Other” primarily includes revenues from our Distribution business, the Overwatch League, and the Call of Duty League.

Console

The increase in net revenues from the console platform for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from:

- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, which was released in October 2019, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4, which was released in October 2018; and
- Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020, as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare.

PC

The increase in net revenues from the PC platform for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from:

- World of Warcraft, which includes the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands; and
- Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, as compared to Call of Duty: Black Ops 4.

The increase was partially offset by lower revenues from Hearthstone.

Mobile and Ancillary

The increase in net revenues from mobile and ancillary for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to net revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher revenues from:

- the Candy Crush franchise; and
- Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019.

Costs and Expenses

Cost of Revenues

The following table details the components of cost of revenues in dollars (amounts in millions) and as a percentage of associated net revenues:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2021	% of associated net revenues	Three Months Ended March 31, 2020	% of associated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Cost of revenues—product sales:
Product costs	$ 140	21 %	$ 119	22 %	$ 21
Software royalties, amortization, and intellectual property licenses	112	17	82	15	30
Cost of revenues—in-game, subscription, and other:
Game operations and distribution costs	296	19	258	21	38
Software royalties, amortization, and intellectual property licenses	30	2	46	4	(16)
Total cost of revenues	$ 578	25 %	$ 505	28 %	$ 73

Cost of Revenues—Product Sales:

The increase in product costs for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a $43 million increase in product costs for our Distribution business as a result of higher revenues, partially offset by an $11 million decrease in product costs from Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War, which was released in November 2020, as compared to Call of Duty: Modern Warfare, which was released in October 2019.

The increase in software royalties, amortization, and intellectual property licenses related to product sales for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a $28 million increase in software amortization and royalties from Blizzard, driven by higher software amortization and royalties from World of Warcraft given the November 2020 release of World of Warcraft: Shadowlands with no comparable amortization in the prior year.

Cost of Revenues—In-game, Subscription, and Other:

The increase in game operations and distribution costs for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a $36 million increase in service provider fees, such as digital storefront fees (e.g., fees retained by Apple and Google for our sales on their platforms) and payment processor fees, as a result of higher revenues.

The decrease in software royalties, amortization, and intellectual property licenses related to in-game, subscription, and other revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a decrease of $27 million in amortization of internally-developed franchise and developed software intangible assets acquired as part of our 2016 acquisition of King. The decrease was partially offset by an increase in software amortization and royalties from Activision of $12 million, driven by Call of Duty: Mobile, which was released in October 2019.

Product Development (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of consolidated net revenues	March 31, 2020	% of consolidated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 353	16 %	$ 238	13 %	$ 115

The increase in product development costs for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to higher development costs of $115 million, driven by increased personnel costs to support our franchises, as well as higher bonuses as a result of strong business performance.

Sales and Marketing (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of consolidated net revenues	March 31, 2020	% of consolidated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 237	10 %	$ 243	14 %	$ (6)

Sales and marketing expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, were comparable, as lower sales and marketing costs for the Call of Duty franchise were largely offset by higher sales and marketing costs for the Candy Crush franchise.

General and Administrative (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of consolidated net revenues	March 31, 2020	% of consolidated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 282	12 %	$ 167	9 %	$ 115

The increase in general and administrative expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020, was primarily due to a $106 million increase in personnel costs as a result of higher share-based compensation.

Restructuring and related costs (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of consolidated net revenues	March 31, 2020	% of consolidated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 30	1 %	$ 23	1 %	$ 7

During 2019, we began implementing a plan aimed at refocusing our resources on our largest opportunities and to remove unnecessary levels of complexity and duplication from certain parts of our business. Since then, we have been, and will continue focusing on these goals as we execute against our plan. The restructuring and related costs incurred during 2021 relate primarily to severance costs. We do not expect to realize significant net savings in our total operating expenses as a result of our plan, as cost reductions in our selling, general and administrative activities is expected to be offset by increased investment in product development. Refer to Note 11 of the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further discussion.

Interest and Other Expense (Income), Net (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of consolidated net revenues	March 31, 2020	% of consolidated net revenues	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 30	1 %	$ 8	— %	$ 22

The increase in interest and other expense (income), net, for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2020 was primarily due to a $15 million decrease in interest income driven by lower returns on our investment portfolio as a result of lower interest rates.

As of March 31, 2021, based on the composition of our investment portfolio, we anticipate investment yields may remain low, which would continue to negatively impact our future interest income. Such impact is not expected to be material to the Company's liquidity.

Income Tax Expense (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	% of pretax income	March 31, 2020	% of pretax income	Increase (Decrease)
Three Months Ended	$ 146	19 %	$ 99	16 %	$ 47

The income tax expense of $146 million for the three months ended March 31, 2021, reflects an effective tax rate of 19%, which is higher than the effective tax rate of 16% for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The increase is primarily due to a benefit recognized in the prior year in connection with the remeasurement of a U.S. deferred tax asset, partially offset by higher excess tax benefits from share-based payments in the current year.

The effective tax rate of 19% for the three months ended March 31, 2021, is lower than the U.S. statutory rate of 21%, primarily due to excess tax benefits from share-based payments in the current year.

Further information about our income taxes is provided in Note 13 of the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We believe our ability to generate cash flows from operating activities is one of our fundamental financial strengths. Despite the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy, in the near term, we expect our business and financial condition to remain strong and to continue to generate significant operating cash flows, which, we believe, in combination with our existing balance of cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments of $9.5 billion, our access to capital, and the availability of our $1.5 billion revolving credit facility, will be sufficient to finance our operational and financing requirements for the next 12 months. Our primary sources of liquidity, which are available to us to fund our operations and other cash outflows such as potential dividend payments or share repurchases and scheduled debt maturities (the next of which is in 2026), include our cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, and cash flows provided by operating activities.

As of March 31, 2021, the amount of cash and cash equivalents held outside of the U.S. by our foreign subsidiaries was $2.6 billion, as compared to $2.5 billion as of December 31, 2020. These cash balances are generally available for use in the U.S., subject in some cases to certain restrictions.

Our cash provided from operating activities is somewhat impacted by seasonality. Working capital needs are impacted by sales, which are generally highest in the fourth quarter due to seasonal and holiday-related sales patterns. We consider, on a continuing basis, various transactions to increase shareholder value and enhance our business results, including acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, share repurchases, and other structural changes. These transactions may result in future cash proceeds or payments.

Sources of Liquidity (amounts in millions)

	March 31, 2021	December 31, 2020	Increase (Decrease)
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 9,281	$ 8,647	$ 634

	For the Three Months Ended March 31,
	2021	2020	Increase (Decrease)
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 844	$ 148	$ 696
Net cash used in investing activities	(86)	(28)	(58)
Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities	(95)	7	(102)

Net increase in cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash	$ 635	$ 112	$ 523

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

The primary driver of net cash flows associated with our operating activities is the income generated from the sale of our products and services. This is typically partially offset by: working capital requirements used in the development, sale, and support of our products; payments for interest on our debt; payments for tax liabilities; and payments to our workforce.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2021, was $844 million, as compared to $148 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The increase was primarily due to higher net income and lower tax payments, as the prior-year period included payments for a tax settlement in France with no comparable activity in 2021, in addition to changes in our working capital resulting from the timing of collections and payments.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

The primary drivers of net cash flows associated with investing activities typically include capital expenditures, purchases and sales of investments, changes in restricted cash balances, and cash used for acquisitions.

Net cash used in investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2021, was $86 million, as compared to $28 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The increase in cash used in investing activities was primarily due to the net purchases of $64 million of available-for-sale investments in the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to purchases of available-for-sale investments of $9 million in the prior-year period.

Net Cash provided by Financing Activities

The primary drivers of net cash flows associated with financing activities typically include the proceeds from, and repayments of, our long-term debt and transactions involving our common stock, including the issuance of shares of common stock to employees upon the exercise of stock options, as well as the payment of dividends.

Net cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2021, was $95 million, as compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The change was primarily attributed to higher tax payments made for net share settlements on restricted stock units, driven by higher volume share releases and at higher market values, resulting in $124 million of payments during the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to $19 million in the prior-year period.

Effect of Foreign Exchange Rate Changes

Changes in foreign exchange rates had a negative impact of $28 million on our cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash for the three months ended March 31, 2021, as compared to a negative impact of $15 million for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The change was primarily due to changes in the value of the U.S. dollar relative to the euro and the British pound.

Debt

At March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, our total outstanding debt was $3.7 billion, bearing interest at a weighted average rate of 2.87%.

A summary of our outstanding debt is as follows (amounts in millions):

	At March 31, 2021	At December 31, 2020
2026 Notes	850	850
2027 Notes	400	400
2030 Notes	500	500
2047 Notes	400	400
2050 Notes	1,500	1,500
Total gross long-term debt	$ 3,650	$ 3,650
Unamortized discount and deferred financing costs	(44)	(45)
Total net carrying amount	$ 3,606	$ 3,605

Refer to Note 8 of the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further disclosures regarding our debt obligations.

Dividends

On February 4, 2021, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.47 per common share. Such dividend is payable on May 6, 2021, to shareholders of record at the close of business on April 15, 2021. We have recorded $365 million of dividends payable in “Accrued expenses and other liabilities” on our condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2021.

Capital Expenditures

For the year ending December 31, 2021, we anticipate total capital expenditures of approximately $100 million, primarily for computer and network hardware and leasehold improvements. During the three months ended March 31, 2021, capital expenditures were $22 million.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

At each of March 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, Activision Blizzard had no significant relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial parties, often referred to as “structured finance” or “special purpose” entities, established for the purpose of facilitating off-balance sheet arrangements or other contractually narrow or limited purposes, that have or are reasonably likely to have a material current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures, or capital resources.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our condensed consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These accounting principles require us to make certain estimates, judgments, and assumptions. We believe that the estimates, judgments, and assumptions upon which we rely are reasonable based upon information available to us at the time that they are made. These estimates, judgments, and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented. To the extent there are material differences between these estimates, judgments, or assumptions and actual results, our financial statements will be affected. The accounting policies that reflect our more significant estimates, judgments, and assumptions, and which we believe are the most critical to aid in fully understanding and evaluating our reported financial results, include the following:

- Revenue Recognition;
- Income Taxes; and
- Software Development Costs.

During the three months ended March 31, 2021, there were no significant changes to the above critical accounting policies and estimates. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” contained in Part II, Item 7 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020, for a more complete discussion of our critical accounting policies and estimates.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

For a detailed discussion of all relevant recently issued accounting pronouncements, see Note 2 of the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Market risk is the potential loss arising from fluctuations in market rates and prices. Our market risk exposures primarily include fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

We transact business in many different foreign currencies and may be exposed to financial market risk resulting from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, with a heightened risk for volatility in the future due to potential impacts of COVID-19 on global financial markets. Revenues and related expenses generated from our international operations are generally denominated in their respective local currencies. Primary currencies include euros, British pounds, Australian dollars, South Korean won, Chinese yuan, and Swedish krona. To the extent the U.S. dollar strengthens against foreign currencies, the translation of these foreign currency-denominated transactions will result in reduced revenues, operating expenses, net income, and cash flows from our international operations. Similarly, our revenues, operating expenses, net income, and cash flows will increase for our international operations if the U.S. dollar weakens against foreign currencies. Since we have significant international sales, but incur the majority of our costs in the United States, the impact of foreign currency fluctuations, particularly the strengthening of the U.S. dollar, may have an asymmetric and disproportional impact on our business. We monitor currency volatility throughout the year.

To mitigate our foreign currency risk resulting from our foreign currency-denominated monetary assets, liabilities, and earnings and our foreign currency risk related to functional currency-equivalent cash flows resulting from our intercompany transactions, we periodically enter into currency derivative contracts, principally forward contracts. These forward contracts generally have a maturity of less than one year. The counterparties for our currency derivative contracts are large and reputable commercial or investment banks.

The fair values of our foreign currency contracts are estimated based on the prevailing exchange rates of the various hedged currencies as of the end of the period.

We do not hold or purchase any foreign currency forward contracts for trading or speculative purposes.

Foreign Currency Forward Contracts Designated as Hedges (“Cash Flow Hedges”) and Foreign Currency Forward Contracts Not Designated as Hedges

Refer to Note 6 of the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for disclosures regarding our Cash Flow Hedges and foreign currency forward contracts not designated as hedges.

In the absence of hedging activities for the three months ended March 31, 2021, a hypothetical adverse foreign currency exchange rate movement of 10% would have resulted in a theoretical decline of our net income of approximately $24 million. This sensitivity analysis assumes a parallel adverse shift of all foreign currency exchange rates against the U.S. dollar; however, all foreign currency exchange rates do not always move in this manner and actual results may differ materially.

Interest Rate Risk

Our exposure to market rate risk for changes in interest rates relates primarily to our investment portfolio, as our outstanding debt is all at fixed rates. Our investment portfolio consists primarily of money market funds and government securities with high credit quality and short average maturities. Because short-term securities mature relatively quickly and must be reinvested at the then-current market rates, interest income on a portfolio consisting of cash, cash equivalents, or short-term securities is more subject to market fluctuations than a portfolio of longer-term securities. Conversely, the fair value of such a portfolio is less sensitive to market fluctuations than a portfolio of longer-term securities. At March 31, 2021, our cash and cash equivalents were comprised primarily of money market funds.

As of March 31, 2021, based on the composition of our investment portfolio, we anticipate investment yields may remain low, which would continue to negatively impact our future interest income. Such impact is not expected to be material to the Company's liquidity.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Definition and Limitations of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”)) are designed to reasonably ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act is: (1) recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission’s rules and forms and (2) accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. A control system, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance that it will detect or uncover failures within the Company to disclose material information otherwise required to be set forth in our periodic reports. Inherent limitations to any system of disclosure controls and procedures include, but are not limited to, the possibility of human error and the circumvention or overriding of such controls by one or more persons. In addition, we have designed our system of controls based on certain assumptions, which we believe are reasonable, about the likelihood of future events, and our system of controls may therefore not achieve its desired objectives under all possible future events.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures at March 31, 2021, the end of the period covered by this report. Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that, at March 31, 2021, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is (1) recorded, processed, summarized, and reported on a timely basis and (2) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, has evaluated any changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2021. Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that, at March 31, 2021, there have not been any changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

We are party to routine claims, suits, investigations, audits, and other proceedings arising from the ordinary course of business, including with respect to intellectual property rights, contractual claims, labor and employment matters, regulatory matters, tax matters, unclaimed property matters, compliance matters, and collection matters. In the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel, such routine claims and lawsuits are not significant, and we do not expect them to have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Various risks associated with our business are described in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors,” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 (the “2020 Form 10-K”).

In addition to the other information set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, you should carefully consider the factors discussed in “Risk Factors” in the 2020 Form 10-K, any of which could materially affect our business, reputation, financial condition, results of operations, income, revenue, profitability, cash flows, liquidity, or stock price. The ongoing global COVID-19 pandemic has heightened, and in some cases manifested, certain of the risks we normally face in operating our business, including those disclosed in the 2020 Form 10-K.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into as of the date signed by the Employer, between Activision Blizzard, Inc. (the “Employer” or “Activision Blizzard” and, together with its subsidiaries, the “Activision Blizzard Group”), and Armin Zerza (“you”).

RECITAL

WHEREAS, the Employer and you are parties to an employment agreement dated as of June 23, 2015, which will expire on March 31, 2022 (“Old Employment Agreement”);

WHEREAS, upon the date that you become the Chief Financial Officer of Activision Blizzard (which shall occur on a date mutually agreed between you and the Chief Executive Officer), you will cease to be the EVP, AB Chief Commercial Officer & Blizzard COO for Activision Blizzard (“Promotion Date”);

WHEREAS, the Employer desires to employ you on different terms and conditions after March 31, 2021, and you desire to be so employed by the Employer, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Employer and you agree that this Agreement will supersede all of the Employer’s obligations under the Old Employment Agreement in their entirety, except as otherwise specifically provided herein; and,

WHEREAS, Activision Blizzard’s performance-oriented pay practices target compensation no greater than the median of its group of peer companies. If Activision Blizzard exceeds its target performance measurements for the relevant performance period, then, at the sole and absolute discretion of the Chief Executive Officer with the approval of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors for Activision Blizzard (the “Compensation Committee”), Activision Blizzard may increase your compensation for the relevant performance period up to the average compensation earned by similarly situated executives of Activision Blizzard’s peer companies, adjusted for tenure, role and any other discretionary criteria to be determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises set forth in this Agreement, the Employer and you hereby agree as follows, incorporating the Recitals as a part of this Agreement:

1. Term of Employment

(a) The term of your employment under this Agreement (the “Term”) shall commence on April 1, 2021 (the “Effective Date”) and shall end on March 31, 2024 (the “Expiration Date”) (or such earlier date on which your employment is terminated under Section 9). The Employer shall have the option to extend the Term by one year, in its sole and absolute discretion, by notifying you in writing of its intent to do so no later than the original Expiration Date. If prior to April 1, 2025, the Employer determines that you have received or will receive by March 31, 2025, in the aggregate, at least twice the value of your target compensation under this Agreement in cash compensation and equity compensation (valued on the higher of (a) the closing price of the Employer’s common stock price on the date of vesting or (b) the closing price of the Employer’s common stock price as of March 24, 2025), the Employer shall have the option to extend the Term by up to one year (through March 31, 2026) by notifying you in writing of its intent to do so no later than the original Expiration Date. The final date of any such extended Term shall thereafter be referred to as the “Expiration Date” for purposes of this Agreement and the Term shall end on such date (or such earlier date on which your employment is terminated under Section 9). Except as set forth in Section 11(s), upon the Expiration Date (or such earlier date on which your employment is terminated) all obligations of the Employer and all of your rights under this Agreement shall immediately lapse.

(b) You and the Employer each agree to provide the other with at least six (6) months’ notice of any intent not to continue your employment following the Expiration Date. If your employment continues beyond the Expiration Date, you shall remain an at-will employee whose employment may be terminated by either party to this Agreement at any time for any reason.

2. Compensation

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, in full consideration for all rights and services provided by you under this Agreement, during the Term you shall receive only the compensation set forth in this Section 2.

(b) Commencing on April 1, 2021, you shall receive an annual base salary (“Base Salary”) of eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000), which shall be paid in accordance with the Employer’s payroll policies. Your Base Salary shall be reviewed periodically at the same time as similarly situated executives of the Employer and may be increased by an amount determined by the Employer, in its sole and absolute discretion.

(c) Beginning with respect to calendar year 2021, you will be eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus (the “Annual Bonus”). The target amount of your Annual Bonus will be one hundred fifty percent (150%) of your Base Salary as in effect at the beginning of each year and may be delivered in cash or equity or any combination thereof. In all instances, the actual amount and the form (e.g., cash and/or equity) of the Annual Bonus, if any, shall be determined by the Compensation Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion, and may be based on, among other things, your Base Salary, the portion of the year falling in the Term (e.g., a partial bonus with respect to your service during calendar year 2021 or any other calendar year determined in a manner consistent with similarly situated executives of the Employer who served during a portion of the year), your overall performance and the performance of the Employer. The cash and equity portion of the Annual Bonus, if any, will be paid at the same time as the cash and equity portion of the bonuses for that year are generally paid to other executives, but in no event earlier than the first day of the first month, or later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the third month, of the year following the year to which the Annual Bonus relates. In all instances, you must remain continuously employed by the Activision Blizzard Group through the date on which the cash and equity portions of the Annual Bonus, if any, are paid, granted, or delivered to you, for you to be eligible to receive such Annual Bonus.

(d) At the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Compensation Committee that includes equity granting on the agenda and occurs after the Effective Date, the 2021 Contract Equity Awards (as defined below) shall be presented for approval; once approved, they shall be granted in the first open trading window thereafter. Activision Blizzard will grant to you equity awards as follows:

(i) Activision Blizzard shall grant to you a one-time non-qualified stock options to purchase shares of Activision Blizzard’s common stock (“Shares”) with a total grant value of approximately four million dollars ($4,000,000) (the “2021 Options”). The actual number of stock options awarded to you on the grant date shall be determined based on the Grant Date Price, and an applicable binomial factor selected by the Employer and determined using the same methodology used with respect to similarly situated executives of the Employer. The number of stock options awarded shall be rounded to the nearest whole number, and Activision Blizzard retains the discretion to modify the methodology for such calculations as needed, so long as such methodology is the same with respect to similarly situated executives of the Employer. The 2021 Options shall be awarded with an exercise price per share that is equal to the Grant Date Price. Finally, one-half of the 2021 Options shall be eligible to vest on March 31, 2024 and one-half of the 2021 Options shall be eligible to vest on March 31, 2025, subject to your remaining employed by Activision Blizzard through each applicable vesting date.

(ii) Activision Blizzard shall grant you a sign on bonus with a target value of one million dollars ($1,000,000) (less required taxes and withholdings, if paid in cash) (“Long Term Commitment Bonus”). The Long Term Commitment Bonus may be delivered in cash or time-based vesting restricted share units or any combination thereof and is subject to your remaining continuously employed through March 31, 2024. The actual form (e.g., cash and/or equity) of the Long Term Commitment Bonus, shall be determined by the Compensation Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion. This Long Term Commitment Bonus will not be fully earned by you until you have completed three years of continuous employment under this Agreement; accordingly, it will not be fully earned or fully vested unless you remain employed through March 31, 2024, rendering it subject to recapture. Specifically, if your employment terminates pursuant to Section 9(a), or you resign in breach of Section 9(b), before the Long Term Commitment Bonus is fully earned, you agree to return to the Employer the value of the cash and/or Shares delivered to you under this Long Term Commitment Bonus provision within thirty (30) days of the termination of your employment as follows: for a termination prior to March 31, 2022, you will repay 100% of the value; for a termination between April 1, 2022 and March 31, 2023, you will repay 66%; for a termination between April 1, 2023 and March 30, 2024, you will repay 33%. For the purposes of any recapture or repayment of Shares delivered as part of the Long Term Commitment Bonus, if any, the Share value will be calculated using the closing share price on the date the Shares originally were delivered to you. If you remain employed by the Activision Blizzard Group continuously through March 31, 2024, the Long Term Commitment Bonus shall be fully earned and vested as of that date such that if your employment subsequently terminates for any reason you will not have to repay any portion thereof. If you do not repay the Long Term Commitment Bonus or any portion of the bonus upon demand by the Employer, you will be liable for the attorney's fees and costs incurred by the Employer in having to collect such sums from you. The fact that you are receiving this Long Term Commitment Bonus and the terms under which you will be required to repay it in no way affect your other obligations under this Agreement.

(iii) Commencing with the Employer's 2021 annual grant process and not more than once per fiscal year during the Term, Activision Blizzard annually shall grant to you performance-vesting restricted share units ("PSUs"), which represent the conditional right to receive Shares (the "Annual PSUs"), with a target value at the time of grant of approximately one million eight hundred seventy six thousand dollars ($1,876,000) (the "Annual Target PSU Grant Value"). The actual number of Annual PSUs awarded to you on each grant date shall be equal to the Annual Target PSU Grant Value divided by the Grant Date Price (it being recognized that if the maximum performance objectives are met for all of the Annual PSUs, the value of the Shares received upon vesting for all of the Annual PSUs would have been approximately two million three hundred forty five thousand dollars ($2,345,000) at the time of grant, representing approximately one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the Annual Target PSU Grant Value). The number of Annual PSUs awarded shall be rounded to the nearest whole number and shall be determined by the Compensation Committee in its sole and absolute discretion, and Activision Blizzard retains the discretion to modify the methodology for such calculations as needed, so long as such methodology is the same used with respect to similarly situated executives of the Employer. Subject to your remaining employed by Activision Blizzard through each applicable vesting date, the actual number of each Annual PSU award shall vest as follows:

a. Twenty five percent (25%) of the Annual PSUs will be divided equally into three tranches over three 1-fiscal year performance measurement periods. Each tranche will be eligible to vest the March 31st following the end of the relevant fiscal year, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines that Activision Blizzard's annual OI is ninety percent (90%) or more of the OI Objective for the same performance period and the number of Shares delivered will be calculated based on the OI Performance Curve.

b. Twenty five percent (25%) of the Annual PSUs will be divided equally into three tranches over three 1-fiscal year performance measurement periods. Each tranche will be eligible to vest the March 31st following the end of the relevant fiscal year, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines the TSR Performance for the relevant performance measurement period is ninety percent (90%) or more of the annual TSR target established for the same performance period and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the TSR Performance Curve.

c. Fifty percent (50%) of the Annual PSUs will be divided equally into three tranches over three 1-fiscal year performance measurement periods. Each tranche will be eligible to vest the March 31st following the end of the relevant fiscal year, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines that EPS for the same performance period is ninety percent (90%) or more of the annual EPS Objective, and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the EPS Performance Curve.

(i) Commencing with the Employer's 2021 annual grant process and not more than once per fiscal year during the Term, Activision Blizzard shall grant to you PSUs, which represent the conditional right to receive Shares with performance objectives contingent upon cumulative performance for three full fiscal years ("Annual 3-Year PSUs"), with a target value at the time of grant of approximately one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) ("Annual Target 3-Year PSU Grant Value"). The actual number of Annual 3-Year PSUs awarded to you on the grant date shall be equal to the Annual Target 3-Year PSU Grant Value divided by the Grant Date Price (it being recognized that if the maximum performance objectives are met for any of the Annual 3-Year PSUs, the value of the Shares received upon vesting for such the Annual 3-Year PSU would have been approximately two million three hundred forty five thousand dollars ($2,345,000) at the time of grant, representing approximately one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the Annual Target 3-Year PSU Grant Value). The number of Annual 3-Year PSUs awarded shall be rounded to the nearest whole number and shall be determined by the Compensation Committee in its sole and absolute discretion, and Activision Blizzard retains the discretion to modify the methodology for such calculations as needed, so long as such methodology is the same used with respect to similarly situated executives of the Employer. Subject to your remaining employed by Activision Blizzard through each applicable vesting date, the actual number of each Annual 3-Year PSU award shall vest as follows:

a. Twenty-five percent (25%) will be eligible to vest no later than the March 31st following the end of the relevant three-year performance period, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines that Activision Blizzard's cumulative annual OI is ninety percent (90%) or more of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the OI Performance Curve.

b. Twenty five percent (25%) will be eligible to vest no later than the March 31st following the end of the relevant three-year performance period if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines the TSR Performance for the relevant performance measurement period is ninety percent (90%) or more of the three-year TSR target established for the relevant performance period and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the TSR Performance Curve.

c. Fifty percent (50%) will be eligible to vest no later than the March 31st following the end of relevant three-year performance period, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines that cumulative EPS for the relevant performance measurement period is ninety percent (90%) or more of the relevant three-year EPS Objective, and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the EPS Performance Curve.

(i) Activision Blizzard shall grant to you a one-time award of PSUs (“2021 Long Term Equity”), with a target value at the time of the grant of approximately six million dollars ($6,000,000) (“Target 2021 Long Term Equity Grant Value”). The actual number of PSUs awarded to you on the grant date shall be equal to the Target 2021 Long Term Equity Grant Value divided by the Grant Date Price (it being recognized that if the maximum performance objectives are met for all of the 2021 Long Term Equity, the value of the Shares received upon vesting for all of the 2021 Long Term Equity would have been approximately seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) at the time of grant, representing approximately one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the Target 2021 Long Term Equity Grant Value). The number of 2021 Long Term Equity PSUs awarded shall be rounded to the nearest whole number and shall be determined by the Compensation Committee in its sole and absolute discretion, and Activision Blizzard retains the discretion to modify the methodology for such calculations as needed, so long as such methodology is the same used with respect to similarly situated executives of the Employer. Subject to your remaining employed by Activision Blizzard through each applicable vesting date, the 2021 Long Term Equity award shall vest as follows:

a. Sixty percent (60%) shall be divided equally into two tranches over two 3-year performance measurement periods (January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2023 and January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024); each tranche will be eligible to vest no later than the March 31st following the end of the relevant three-year performance measurement period, if, and only if, the Compensation Committee determines that Activision Blizzard’s OI is ninety percent (90%) or more of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period and the number of shares delivered will be subject to the OI Performance Curve.

b. Forty percent (40%) shall be divided equally into two tranches over two 3-year performance measurement periods (January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2023 and January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024); each tranche will be eligible to vest no later than the March 31st following the end of the relevant three-year performance measurement period, if, and only if, the TSR Performance for the relevant performance measurement period is ninety percent (90%) or more of the three-year TSR target established for the relevant performance period and the number of shares delivered will be calculated based on the TSR Performance Curve.

(i) For purposes of this Section 2(d) the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below:

“EPS” for the relevant performance period means Activision Blizzard’s earnings per Share as determined by the Compensation Committee and calculated in the same manner as the relevant performance measurement period’s EPS Objective.

“EPS Objective” means the operating plan EPS objective established by the Compensation Committee for the relevant performance measurement period.

“EPS Performance Curve” means and shall be determined as follows:

a. If the EPS for the relevant performance measurement period is less than ninety percent (90%) of the EPS Objective for the same period, then the relevant PSUs will not vest and shall be forfeited.

b. If EPS is ninety percent (90%) of the EPS Objective for the relevant performance measurement period, then fifty percent (50%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if EPS is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if EPS is between ninety and one hundred percent (90–100%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if the EPS is ninety two percent (92%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then sixty percent (60%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

c. If EPS is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if EPS is one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if EPS is between one hundred and one hundred twenty five percent (100-125%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if the EPS is one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant EPS Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

d. In no circumstance will any of the EPS PSU tranches vest at any percentage above one hundred twenty five percent (125%).

“Grant Date Price” means the official closing price of Activision Blizzard’s common stock on the effective date of the grant, as reported by NASDAQ.

“OI” means Activision Blizzard’s operating income for the relevant performance measurement period as determined by the Compensation Committee and calculated in the same manner as the relevant performance measurement period’s OI Objective “OI Objective” means the operating plan OI objective established by the Compensation Committee for the relevant performance measurement period.

“OI Performance Curve” means and shall be determined as follows:

a. If the OI for the relevant performance measurement period is less than ninety percent (90%) of the OI Objective for the same period, then the relevant PSUs will not vest and shall be forfeited.

b. If OI is ninety percent (90%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then fifty percent (50%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if OI is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if OI is between ninety and one hundred percent (90–100%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if OI is ninety two percent (92%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then sixty percent (60%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

c. If OI is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if OI is one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if OI is between one hundred and one hundred twenty five percent (100–125%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if the OI is one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant OI Objective for the relevant performance period, then one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

d. In no circumstance will any of the OI PSU tranches vest at any percentage above one hundred twenty five percent (125%).

“S&P 500 TSR” means the rate of return on the S&P 500 Total Return Index, determined by reference to the increase or decrease, as the case may be, between the average of the closing value of the S&P Total Return Index for the thirty (30) NASDAQ trading days leading up to, and inclusive of, the TSR Performance measurement period’s start date and the thirty (30) trading days leading up to, and inclusive of, the period’s end date.

“S&P 500 Total Return Index” means the index of this name promulgated by S&P Dow Jones Indices, and reflects the stock price performance of the constituent companies in the index, together with the assumed reinvestment of dividends (or, in the event that the S&P 500 Total Return Index is discontinued or, in the opinion of the Compensation Committee, materially changed prior to December 31, the end of the relevant performance period, a substantially equivalent replacement index chosen by the Compensation Committee in its sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that if the Compensation Committee determines that a substantially equivalent replacement index is not available, the Compensation Committee shall have sole and absolute discretion to determine how the calculations related to the index will be conducted, consistent with the methodology of the S&P 500 Total Return Index).

“TSR” for the relevant TSR performance measurement period means the rate of return on the Shares, assuming the reinvestment of dividends (stock price appreciation assuming dividend reinvestments, with such dividend reinvestments calculated based on same-day reinvestment into the Shares on the ex-dividend date) determined by reference to the increase or decrease, as the case may be, between the average of Activision Blizzard’s closing stock price per Share as reported by NASDAQ for the thirty (30) days leading up to, and inclusive of, the TSR Performance measurement period’s start date and the thirty (30) days leading up to, and inclusive of, the period’s end date.

“TSR Performance” means TSR minus S&P 500 TSR.

“TSR Performance Curve” means and shall be determined as follows:

a. If the TSR Performance for the relevant performance measurement period is less than ninety percent (90%) of the TSR target established for the same period, TSR Performance during the relevant performance measurement period is less than ten percent (10%) or TSR Performance is not greater than zero, then the relevant PSUs for that performance measurement period will not vest and shall be forfeited.

b. If TSR Performance is ninety percent (90%) of the TSR target established for the relevant performance period, then fifty percent (50%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if TSR Performance is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant TSR target established for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if TSR Performance is between ninety and one hundred percent (90-100%) of the relevant TSR target established for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if TSR Performance is ninety two percent (92%) of the relevant TSR target for the relevant performance period, then sixty (60%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

c. If TSR Performance is one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant TSR target set for the relevant performance period, then one hundred percent (100%) of the relevant tranche shall vest; if TSR Performance is one hundred twenty five percent (125%) of the relevant TSR target for the relevant performance period, then 125% percent of the relevant tranche shall vest; and if TSR Performance is between one hundred and one hundred twenty five percent (100-125%) of the relevant TSR target for the relevant performance period, then the vesting for that tranche will be established via straight line interpolation between those two numbers (e.g., if the TSR Performance is one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant TSR target established for the relevant performance period, then one hundred two percent (102%) of the relevant tranche shall vest).

d. In no circumstance will any of the TSR PSU tranches vest at any percentage above one hundred twenty five percent (125%.)

(vii) Prior to the vesting of any portion of the OI PSUs as provided for in this Section 2(d), Activision Blizzard, in its sole and absolute discretion, may adjust the performance objective for the relevant fiscal year(s) by substituting the OI and OI objective of one or more new, different or additional business units or activities for that of the original business unit or activity stated herein or by prorating or otherwise combining the OI and OI objective, or by substituting one or more other objectives or elements contained in the operating plan for the OI and OI objectives or elements, in each case for purposes of determining whether or not the conditions of the relevant unvested PSUs have been satisfied. The Employer agrees that it will in good faith engage in meaningful consultation with you prior to implementing any such change.

(viii) Collectively, the options and equity grants provided for in this Section 2(d) shall be referred to as the “2021 Contract Equity Awards.” You acknowledge that the grant of 2021 Contract Equity Awards pursuant to this Section 2(d) is expressly conditioned upon approval by the Compensation Committee and that the Compensation Committee has sole and absolute discretion to approve or disapprove the grants and/or to determine and make modifications to the terms of the grants. The actual amount, performance objectives, and vesting schedule, for the 2021 Contract Equity Awards will be determined by the Compensation Committee, which has discretion to approve or disapprove all equity incentive awards and to determine and/or make modification to the terms of such awards. The 2021 Contract Equity Awards shall be subject to all terms of the equity incentive plan pursuant to which they are granted (the “Incentive Plan”), Activision Blizzard’s standard forms of award agreement and, in the event that Activision Blizzard determines that you are an Executive Officer (as defined by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of Activision Blizzard, the Employer’s Executive Stock Ownership Guidelines (including, but not limited to, all of the limitations on equity awards described therein); in the event of a conflict between this Agreement and the terms of the Incentive Plan or award agreements, the Incentive Plan or the award agreements, as applicable, shall govern. In addition, such annual awards, if and when approved by the Compensation Committee, shall be in addition to any previous equity incentive awards made to you.

(ix) If, pursuant to Section 1(a), the Employer exercises its two 1-year options and extends the Term through March 31, 2026, then commencing April 1, 2025 your base bonus and target equity awards will be no less than the median base bonus and target equity awarded to similarly situated executives of Activision Blizzard’s peer companies for the prior year based on available information provided by the Compensation Committee’s advisors, adjusted for tenure, role and any other discretionary criteria to be determined by the Chief Executive Officer in the Chief Executive Officer’s sole and absolute discretion with the approval of the Compensation Committee. If Activision Blizzard achieves performance in the top 25th percentile of its peer companies in fiscal year 2025 or later, the Chief Executive Officer in the Chief Executive Officer’s sole and absolute discretion with the approval of the Compensation Committee will have the right to increase your compensation up to the average compensation for Chief Financial Officers in the top 25th percentile of Activision Blizzard’s peer companies, adjusted based on criteria determined by the Chief Executive Officer in the Chief Executive Officer's sole and absolute discretion.

3. Title; Location

You shall serve in your current positions until the Promotion Date, from which time you shall serve as Chief Financial Officer of Activision Blizzard. Your principal place of business shall be Activision Blizzard's office in Santa Monica, California; provided, however, that you acknowledge and agree that you will be required to travel from time to time for business reasons.

4. Duties

You shall report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of the Employer (or such other executive of the Activision Blizzard Group as may be determined from time to time by it in its sole and absolute discretion) and shall have such duties commensurate with your position as may be assigned to you from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer (or, as applicable, such other executive designated by the Employer). As with all direct reports of the Chief Executive Officers, your duties, responsibilities and title are subject to adjustment. You are also required to read, review and observe all of the Activision Blizzard Group's policies, procedures, rules and regulations in effect from time to time during the Term that apply to employees of the Employer, including, without limitation, the Code of Conduct, as amended from time to time. You shall commit yourself to a diverse and inclusive work environment. You shall devote your full-time working time to the performance of your duties hereunder, shall faithfully serve the Employer, shall in all respects conform to and comply with the lawful directions and instructions given to you by the Chief Executive Officer (or such other executive of the Activision Blizzard Group as may be determined from time to time by the Employer in its sole and absolute discretion) and shall use your best efforts to promote and serve the interests of the Activision Blizzard Group. Further, you shall at all times place the Employer's interests above your own, not take any actions that would conflict with the Employer's interests and shall perform all your duties for the Employer with the highest duty of care. Further, you shall not, directly or indirectly, render services of any kind to any other person or organization, whether on your own behalf or on behalf of others, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer or otherwise engage in activities that would interfere with your faithful and diligent performance of your duties hereunder.

5. Expenses

To the extent you incur necessary and reasonable travel or other business expenses in the course of your employment, you shall be reimbursed for such expenses, upon presentation of written documentation in accordance with the Employer's policies in effect from time to time.

6. Other Benefits

(a) You shall be eligible to participate in all health, welfare, retirement, pension, life insurance, disability, perquisite and similar plans, programs and arrangements generally available to executives of the Employer from time to time during the Term, subject to the then-prevailing terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such plan, program, or arrangement. In addition to the foregoing benefits, Employer will provide you during the Term, at Employer's expense, with a supplemental term life insurance policy covering your life with a face amount of $2,000,000 through a carrier of Employer's choice (the "Target Face Amount"), subject to your insurability, as applicable. If it is determined that you are insurable at a higher cost than a healthy individual of like age, the face amount of such insurance coverage will be reduced to the maximum face amount of coverage that may be obtained for the cost of coverage of the Target Face Amount for such healthy individual.

(b) You expressly agree and acknowledge that, after the Expiration Date (or such earlier date on which your employment is terminated), you shall not be entitled to any additional benefits, except as specifically provided in this Agreement and the benefit plans in which you participate during the Term, and subject in each case to the then-prevailing terms, conditions, and eligibility requirements of each such plan.

7. Vacation and Paid Holidays

(a) You will generally be entitled to paid vacation days in accordance with the normal vacation policies of the Employer in effect from time to time; provided, however, that you will be entitled to accrue no less than twenty (20) paid vacation days per year unless your vacation balance exceeds the Employer's then-current maximum.

(b) You shall be entitled to all paid holidays allowed by the Employer to its full-time employees in the United States.

8. Protection of the Employer's Interests

(a) Duty of Loyalty. During the Term, you will owe a "Duty of Loyalty" to the Employer, which includes, but is not limited to, you not competing in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, as a principal, employee, agent, owner, or otherwise, with any entity in the Activision Blizzard Group; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 8(a) will limit your right to own up to five percent (5%) of any of the debt or equity securities of any business organization that is then required to file reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(b) Property of the Activision Blizzard Group. All rights worldwide with respect to any and all intellectual or other property of any nature produced, created or suggested by you, whether on your own time or not, alone or with others, during the term of your employment or resulting from your services which (i) relate in any manner at the time of conception or reduction to practice to the actual or demonstrably anticipated business of the Activision Blizzard Group, (ii) result from or are suggested by any task assigned to you or any work performed by you on behalf of the Activision Blizzard Group, (iii) were created using the time or resources of the Activision Blizzard Group, or (iv) are based on any property owned or idea conceived by the Activision Blizzard Group, shall be deemed to be a work made for hire and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Activision Blizzard Group. You agree to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Employer, at the Employer's request, such further documents, including copyright and patent assignments, as the Employer finds appropriate to evidence the Activision Blizzard Group's rights in such property. Your agreement to assign to the Activision Blizzard Group any of your rights as set forth in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to any invention that qualifies fully under the provisions of California Labor Code Section 2870, where no equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Activision Blizzard Group was used, where the invention was developed entirely upon your own time, where the invention does not relate to the Activision Blizzard Group's business, and where the invention does not result from any work performed by you for the Activision Blizzard Group.

(c) Covenant Not to Shop. Other than during the final six (6) months of the Term, you shall not negotiate for employment with any entity or person outside of Activision Blizzard. During any such search process and thereafter you shall remain strictly subject to your continuing obligations under this Agreement, including, without limitation, your Duty of Loyalty, compliance with Activision Blizzard's policies and your confidentiality obligations.

(d) Confidentiality. You acknowledge, and the Employer agrees, that during your employment you will have access to and become informed of confidential and proprietary information concerning Activision Blizzard. During your employment and at all times following the termination of your employment, confidential or proprietary information of Activision Blizzard shall not be used by you or disclosed or made available by you to any person except as required in the course of your employment with Activision Blizzard or as otherwise provided for in the Employee Confidential Information Agreement attached as Exhibit A hereto (the "Confidential Information Agreement"). Upon the termination of your employment (or at any time on the Employer's request), you shall return to Activision Blizzard all such information that exists, whether in electronic, written, or other form (and all copies or extracts thereof) under your control and shall not retain such information in any form, including without limitation on any devices, disks, cloud storage, or other media. You agree to advise the Employer of the location of any such materials and information and to cooperate fully with any instructions by the Employer concerning the retrieval of any such materials and other actions that the Employer determines to be appropriate to prevent your continued access to such materials and information. You acknowledge and agree that, because your duties will provide you with access to personal and private information of the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Lead Director (and their entities), you will sign and deliver a Non-Disclosure Agreement prior to the Effective Date. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you acknowledge signing and delivering to the Employer the Confidential Information Agreement as of the Effective Date and you agree that all terms and conditions contained in such agreement, and all of your obligations and commitments provided for in such agreement, shall be deemed, and hereby are, incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth in full herein.

(e) Return of Property and Resignation from Office. You acknowledge that, upon termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever (or at any time on the Employer's request), you will promptly deliver to the Activision Blizzard Group or surrender to the Activision Blizzard Group's representative all property of any entity in the Activision Blizzard Group, including, without limitation, all documents and other materials (and all copies thereof) relating to the Activision Blizzard Group's business, all identification and access cards, all contact lists and third party business cards however and wherever preserved, and any equipment provided by any member in the Activision Blizzard Group, including, without limitation, computers, telephones, personal digital assistants, memory cards and similar devices that you possess or have in your custody or under your control. You will cooperate with the Activision Blizzard Group by participating in interviews to share any knowledge you may have regarding the Activision Blizzard Group's intellectual or other property with personnel designated by the Activision Blizzard Group. You also agree to resign from any office held by you within the Activision Blizzard Group immediately upon termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever (or at any time on the Employer's request) and you irrevocably appoint any person designated as the Activision Blizzard Group's representative at that time as your delegate to effect such resignation.

(f) Resignation of Positions Held Prior To Effective Date. You agree and represent that you will irrevocably resign as of the Effective Date, or such earlier date as requested by the Employer, from any and all officer and other positions you then hold with any member of the Activision Blizzard Group, whose members include, but are not limited to, Activision Blizzard Holdings I, Inc., Activision Blizzard Holdings II, Inc., Activision Blizzard Shared Services, Inc., Activision Productions, Inc., Activision Publishing Minneapolis, Inc., Activision Testing & Verification, Inc., Activision Texas, Inc., Central Technology East, Inc., Infinity Ward, Inc., Interactive Associates, Inc., Shiny Coin, LLC, Sledgehammer Games, Inc., Toys for Bob, Inc., Treyarch Corporation, Vicarious Visions, Inc., Major League Gaming Corp., Inc., Activision Blizzard Media, LLC, Activision Entertainment Holdings, Inc., Amber Holding Subsidiary Co., High Moon Studios, LLC, Iron Fang, LLC, King.com, Inc., King.com, LLC, King.com Games, LLC, Ominata, Inc., Powder Monkey Games LLC, and Z2 Live, Inc. You irrevocably appoint any person designated as Activision Blizzard's representative at that time as your delegate to effect such resignation. You expressly agree and understand that you will no longer be authorized and agree not to sign any documents on behalf of any member of the Activision Blizzard Group as of the earlier of (i) the date when you are notified that you are no longer an authorized signatory with respect to any role you may hold or have held with a member of the Activision Blizzard Group, which includes, but is not limited to, the aforementioned entities and (ii) the Expiration Date.

(g) Covenant Not to Solicit.

(i) During your employment, you shall not, at any time or for any reason, either alone or jointly, with or on behalf of others, whether as principal, partner, agent, representative, equity holder, director, employee, consultant or otherwise, directly or indirectly: (a) offer employment to, or solicit the employment or engagement of, or otherwise entice away from the employment or engagement of Activision Blizzard, either for your own account or for any other person, firm or company, any person employed or otherwise engaged by Activision Blizzard, whether or not such person would commit any breach of a contract by reason of his or her leaving the service of Activision Blizzard; (b) solicit, induce or entice any client, customer, contractor, licensor, agent, supplier, partner or other business relationship of Activision Blizzard to terminate, discontinue, renegotiate or otherwise cease or modify its relationship with

Activision Blizzard; (c) assist others to engage in the acts contemplated by Sections 8(g)(i)(a) or (b); or (d) engage in any subterfuge to attempt to circumvent the application of this Section.

(ii) For a period of two (2) years following the termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever, you shall not, at any time or for any reason, either alone or jointly, with or on behalf of others, whether as principal, partner, agent, representative, equity holder, director, employee, consultant or otherwise, directly or indirectly (a) solicit the employment or engagement of, either for your own account or for any other person, firm or company, any person employed or otherwise engaged by Activision Blizzard, whether or not such person would commit any breach of a contract by reason of his or her leaving the service of Activision Blizzard; (b) assist others to engage in the acts contemplated by Section 8(g)(ii)(a); or (c) engage in any subterfuge to attempt to circumvent the application of this Section.

(iii) During your employment and at all times following the termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever, you shall not, at any time or for any reason, use the confidential or trade secret information of Activision Blizzard or any other unlawful means to directly or indirectly solicit, induce or entice any client, customer, contractor, licensor, agent, supplier, partner or other business relationship of Activision Blizzard to terminate, discontinue, renegotiate or otherwise cease or modify its relationship with Activision Blizzard.

(iv) You expressly acknowledge and agree that the restrictions contained in this Section 8(g) are reasonably tailored to protect Activision Blizzard's confidential information and trade secrets and to ensure that you do not violate your Duty of Loyalty or any other fiduciary duty to the Employer, and are reasonable in all circumstances in scope, duration and all other respects. The provisions of this Section 8(g) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and shall remain and continue in effect if your employment becomes at-will as provided in Section 1(b).

9. Termination of Employment

(a) By the Employer for Cause.

(i) At any time during the Term, the Employer may terminate your employment for "Cause," which shall mean a reasonable and good-faith determination by the Employer that you (i) engaged in gross negligence in the performance of your duties or willfully and continuously failed or refused to perform any duties reasonably requested in the course of your employment; (ii) engaged in fraud, dishonesty, or any other serious misconduct that causes or has the potential to cause harm to any entity in the Activision Blizzard Group, including its business or reputation; (iii) materially violated any lawful directives or policies of the Activision Blizzard Group or any laws, rules or regulations applicable to your employment with the Activision Blizzard Group; (iv) materially breached this Agreement or any other agreement to which you are a party with any members of Activision Blizzard Group; (v) materially breached any proprietary information or confidentiality agreement with any member of Activision Blizzard Group; (vi) were convicted of, or pled guilty or no contest to, a felony or crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; (vii) materially breached your fiduciary duties to the Activision Blizzard; or (viii) you may not lawfully work for the Employer at your assigned principal place of business.

(ii) In the case of any termination for Cause that is curable without any residual damage (financial or otherwise) to Activision Blizzard Group, the Employer shall give you at least thirty (30) days written notice of its intent to terminate your employment; provided, that in no event shall any termination pursuant to clause (vi) of the definition of Cause be deemed curable. The notice shall specify (x) the effective date of your termination and (y) the particular acts or circumstances that constitute Cause for such termination. You shall be given the opportunity within fifteen (15) days after receiving the notice to explain why Cause does not exist or to cure any basis for Cause (other than a termination pursuant to clause (vi) of the definition thereof). Within fifteen (15) days after any such explanation or cure, the Employer will make its final determination regarding whether Cause exists and deliver such determination to you in writing. If the final decision is that Cause exists and no cure has occurred, your employment with the Employer shall be terminated for Cause as of the date of termination specified in the original notice. If the final decision is that Cause does not exist or a cure has occurred, your employment with the Employer shall not be terminated for Cause at that time.

(iii) If your employment terminates for any reason other than a termination by the Employer for Cause, at a time when the Employer had Cause to terminate you (or would have had Cause if it then knew all relevant facts) under clauses (i), (ii), (v), (vi) or (vii) of the definition of Cause, your termination shall be treated as a termination by the Employer for Cause.

(b) By the Employer Without Cause. The Employer may terminate your employment without Cause at any time during the Term and such termination shall not be deemed a breach by the Employer of any term of this Agreement or any other duty or obligation, expressed or implied, which the Employer may owe to you pursuant to any principle or provision of law.

(c) By You If Your Principal Place of Business Is Relocated Without Your Consent. At any time during the Term, you may terminate your employment if, without your written agreement or other voluntary action on your part, the Employer reassigns your principal place of business to a location that is more than fifty (50) miles from your principal place of business as of the Effective Date and that materially and adversely affects your commute; provided, however, that you must (i) provide the Employer with written notice of your intent to terminate your employment under this Section 9(c) and a description of the event you believe gives you the right to do so within thirty (30) days after the initial existence of the event and (ii) the Employer shall have ninety (90) days after you provide the notice described above to cure any such default (the “Cure Period”). You will have five (5) days following the end of the Cure Period to terminate your employment, if the Employer does not cure, after which your ability to terminate your employment under this Section 9(c) will no longer exist. You agree that if you resign for any other reason that it will constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

(d) Death. In the event of your death during the Term, your employment shall terminate immediately as of the date of your death.

(e) Disability. In the event that you are or become “disabled,” the Employer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, have the right to terminate your employment. For purposes of this Agreement, “disabled” shall mean that either (i) you have a physical or mental impairment that renders you unable to perform the duties required of you under this Agreement, even with the Employer providing you a reasonable accommodation, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to you and the Employer or (ii) you are receiving benefits under any long-term disability plan of the Employer then in effect. You shall cooperate and make yourself available for any medical examination requested by the Employer with respect to any determination of whether you are disabled within ten (10) days of such a request. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent provided by the Employer’s policies and practices then in effect, you shall not receive any Base Salary during any period in which you are disabled; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 9(e) shall impact any right you may have to any payments under the Employer’s short-term and long-term disability plans, if any.

10. Termination of Obligations and Severance Payments

(a) General. Upon the termination of your employment pursuant to Section 9, your rights and the Employer’s obligations to you under this Agreement shall immediately terminate except as provided in this Section 10 and Section 11(s), and you (or your heirs or estate, as applicable) shall be entitled to receive any amounts or benefits set forth below (subject in all cases to Sections 10(e), 11(q) and 11(r)). The payments and benefits provided pursuant to this Section 10 are (x) in lieu of any severance or income continuation protection under any plan of the Activision Blizzard Group that may now or hereafter exist and (y) deemed to satisfy and be in full and final settlement of all obligations of the Activision Blizzard Group to you under this Agreement. You shall have no further right to receive any other compensation benefits following your termination of employment for any reason except as set forth in this Section 10.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

“Basic Severance” shall mean payment of (1) any Base Salary earned but unpaid as of the Termination Date; (2) any business expenses incurred but not reimbursed under Section 5 as of the Termination Date; and (3) payment in lieu of any vacation accrued under Section 7 but unused as of the Termination Date.

“Bonus Severance” shall mean payment of:

(i) an amount equal to the Annual Bonus that the Employer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, you would have received (if any) in accordance with Section 2(c) for any year that ended prior to the Termination Date had you remained employed through the date such bonus would have otherwise been paid (in the event that your Termination Date occurs before such bonus would have been paid) provided, however, that in the exercise of discretion, to the extent any other similarly situated executive has the same objective bonus measurements or metrics, the Employer will evaluate your achievement of such objective measurements or metrics in a manner consistent with such other similarly situated executive; and

(ii) an amount equal to the Annual Bonus that the Employer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, you would have received (if any) in accordance with Section 2(c) for the year in which your Termination Date occurs had you remained employed through the date such bonus would have been paid, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number corresponding to the calendar month in which the Termination Date occurs and the denominator of which is 12, where, for purposes of calculating the amount of such bonus, any goals will be measured by actual performance; provided, however, that in the exercise of discretion, to the extent any other similarly situated executive has the same objective bonus measurements or metrics, the Employer will evaluate your achievement of such objective measurements or metrics in a manner consistent with such other similarly situated executive.

“Termination Date” shall mean the effective date of your termination of employment pursuant to Sections 9(a)-(e).

“Total Severance Limit” shall mean the maximum total value of any severance payments and benefits that you will be due from the Employer in any scenario, which maximum total value shall be equal to your prior year’s target compensation, as determined by the Compensation Committee, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement; provided, however, that if the AOP OI Objective for the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which your Termination Date occurred (the “Measurement Year”) was 100% or more of the annual operating plan operating income objective established by the Board for such Measurement Year, the Employer’s Chief Executive Officer may, in the Chief Executive Officer’s sole and absolute discretion, increase the Total Severance Limit.

(b) Death. In the event your employment is terminated under Section 9(d), and subject to the Total Severance Limit:

(i) Basic Severance. Your heirs or estate, as the case may be, shall receive payment of the Basic Severance in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the Termination Date unless a different payment date is prescribed by an applicable compensation, incentive or benefit plan, in which case payment shall be made in accordance with such plan;

(ii) Lump Sum Payment of Two Times Base Salary. Your heirs or estate, as the case may be, shall receive payment of an amount equal to two (2) times the Base Salary (at the rate in effect as of the Termination Date) in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the Termination Date; provided, however, that this amount shall be reduced by any payments to which you become entitled upon death under any Employer-sponsored plan other than the $2,000,000 life insurance policy;

(iii) Bonus Severance. Your heirs or estate, as the case may be, shall receive payment of the Bonus Severance in a lump sum no later than the 15th day of the third month of the year following the year to which the underlying amount relates; and plans and award agreements. Any equity awards that are not vested as of your Termination Date will be cancelled immediately.

(iv) Impact on Equity Awards. All outstanding equity awards shall cease to vest. All vested equity shall be handled in accordance with the applicable incentive

(c) Termination by the Employer Without Cause, by You if Your Principal Place of Business Is Relocated Without Your Consent or by the Employer if You Become Disabled. In the event the Employer terminates your employment under Section 9(b), you terminate your employment under Section 9(c) or the Employer terminates your employment under Section 9(e) and subject to the Total Severance Limit:

(i) Basic Severance. You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive payment of the Basic Severance in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the Termination Date unless a different payment date is prescribed by an applicable compensation, incentive or benefit plan, in which case payment shall be made in accordance with such plan;

(ii) Salary Continuation. You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive the payment of an amount equal to the Base Salary (at the rate in effect on the Termination Date) that you would have received had you remained employed through the Expiration Date, which amount shall be paid in equal installments commencing on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Termination Date in accordance with the Employer's payroll practices as in effect from time to time, provided that the first such payment shall include any installments relating to the 60 day period following the Termination Date; provided, however, that, to the extent doing so will not result in the imposition of additional taxes under Section 409A ("Section 409A") of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Code"), this amount shall be reduced by any payments which you have received or to which you become entitled under any Employer-sponsored long-term disability plan;

(iii) Bonus Severance. You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive payment of the Bonus Severance in a lump sum no later than the 15th day of the third month of the year following the year to which the underlying amount relates; and

(iv) Impact on Equity Awards. All outstanding equity awards shall cease to vest. All vested equity shall be handled in accordance with the applicable incentive plans and award agreements. Any equity awards that are not vested as of your Termination Date will be cancelled immediately.

(v) Severance Conditioned Upon Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 10(c)(ii) and (c)(iii) are conditioned upon your or your legal representative's execution of a waiver and release in a form prepared by the Employer and that release becoming effective and irrevocable in its entirety within sixty (60) days of the Termination Date. Unless otherwise provided by the Employer, if the release referenced above does not become effective and irrevocable on or prior to the sixtieth (60th) day following the Termination Date, you shall not be entitled to any payments under this Section 10(c) other than the Basic Severance.

(d) Termination by the Employer Without Cause 9(b), by You if Your Principal Place of Business Is Relocated Without Your Consent 9(c), by the Employer if Because of Your Death 9(d) or You Become Disabled 9(e). If and only if your employment is terminated pursuant to Section 9(b), 9(c), 9(d) or 9(e), in addition to any payments and benefits described in Section 10(c)(ii) and 10(c)(iii) you may be due, you will also receive, subject to the Total Severance Limit:

(i) Additional Severance.

(a) You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive payment of $950,000, if, and only if, (i) your Termination Date is after December 31, 2021, but before March 31, 2022, and (ii) the Compensation Committee determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that Activision Blizzard's 2021 OI is 90% or greater than the 2021 OI Objective;

(b) You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive payment of $950,000, if, and only if, (i) your Termination Date is after December 31, 2022, but before March 31, 2023, and (ii) the Compensation Committee determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that Activision Blizzard's 2022 OI is 90% or greater than the 2022 OI Objective; and

(c) You or your legal representative, as the case may be, shall receive payment of $950,000, if, and only if, (i) your Termination Date is after December 31, 2023, but before March 31, 2024, and (ii) the Compensation Committee determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that Activision Blizzard's 2023 OI is 90% or greater than the 2023 OI Objective.

(d) All amounts owed pursuant to this Section 10(d)(i) will be paid within thirty (30) days after the date the Compensation Committee determines that the applicable OI conditions have been achieved (if any), provided that this is no sooner than the 60th day following the Termination Date, and will be subject to applicable taxes and withholdings.

(ii) PSU Termination Consideration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the Total Severance Limit, in the event that (a) your Termination Date occurs after the completion of one or more applicable performance periods, (b) the Compensation Committee determines that the applicable OI performance objective(s) have been achieved for a performance period completed prior to your Termination Date, and (c) the applicable tranche has not vested as of the Termination Date, then an amount to be calculated as provided for below in Section 10(d)(iii) shall be paid to you (the "PSU Termination Consideration"). This amount shall be paid within 30 days after the date the Compensation Committee determines that the applicable OI performance objective(s) have been achieved (if any), provided that this is no sooner than the sixtieth (60th) day following the Termination Date and no later than December 31 of the year in which the Termination Date occurs, and will be subject to applicable taxes and withholdings.

(iii) The formula for determining the PSU Termination Consideration for each applicable tranche of cancelled PSUs, if any, is as follows: multiply the Grant Date Price by the product of the number of performance share units for the applicable tranche by the ratio, as determined by the Compensation Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion, of the non-GAAP operating income for the applicable time period to the OI Objective for the applicable fiscal year (e.g., the performance objective for the applicable fiscal year) or applicable time period, up to the applicable maximum percentage.

(iv) Severance Conditioned Upon Release. Payments and benefits described in this Section 10(d) are conditioned upon your or your legal representative's execution of a waiver and release in a form prepared by the Employer and that release becoming effective and irrevocable in its entirety within sixty (60) days of the Termination Date. Unless otherwise provided by the Employer, if the release referenced above does not become effective and irrevocable on or prior to the sixtieth (60th) day following the Termination Date, you shall not be entitled to any payments under this Section 10(d).

(e) Termination by the Employer For Cause. In the event your employment is terminated by the Employer under Section 9(a), then:

(i) Basic Severance. You shall receive payment of the Basic Severance in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the Termination Date unless a different payment date is prescribed by an applicable compensation, incentive or benefit plan, in which case payment shall be made in accordance with such plan; and

(ii) Impact on Equity Awards. All outstanding equity awards shall cease to vest and, whether or not vested, shall no longer be exercisable and shall be cancelled immediately.

(f) Termination on the Expiration Date. In the event your employment terminates on the Expiration Date, then:

(i) Basic Severance. You shall receive payment of the Basic Severance in a lump sum within thirty (30) days following the Termination Date unless a different payment date is prescribed by an applicable compensation, incentive or benefit plan, in which case payment shall be made in accordance with such plan;

(ii) Bonus Severance. You shall receive payment of the Bonus Severance in a lump sum no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the third month of the year following the year to which the underlying amount relates; and

(iii) Impact on Equity Awards. All outstanding equity awards shall cease to vest. All vested equity shall be handled in accordance with the applicable incentive plans and award agreements. Any equity awards that are not vested as of your Termination Date will be cancelled immediately.

(g) Breach of Post-termination Obligations or Subsequent Employment.

(i) Breach of Post-termination Obligations. In the event that you breach any of your obligations under Section 8, the Employer's obligation, if any, to make payments and provide benefits under Section 10 (other than payment of the Basic Severance) shall immediately and permanently cease and you shall not be entitled to any such payments or benefits.

(ii) Subsequent Employment or Services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, you shall receive any payments and benefits to which you may be entitled under Section 10 (other than payment of the Basic Severance) only for the time period that you do not obtain subsequent employment and/or provide services of any kind for compensation, whether as principal, owner, partner, agent, shareholder, director, employee, consultant, advisor or otherwise, to any person, company, venture or other person or business entity. If, at any time, you obtain subsequent employment or provide services as set forth in the prior sentence, you must promptly notify the Employer and payments and benefits to which you may be entitled under Section 10 (other than payment of the Basic Severance) shall cease as of the date you commenced such employment or provision of services.

11. General Provisions

(a) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Confidential Information Agreement and the Activision Blizzard Group Dispute Resolution Agreement (the "Dispute Resolution Agreement", as referenced in Section 11(k) below), supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements and statements, whether written or oral, concerning the terms of your employment with the Activision Blizzard, and no amendment or modification of these agreements shall be binding unless it is set forth in a writing signed by both the Employer and you. You acknowledge that in entering into this Agreement, you are not relying on any promises or representations (whether oral or written) other than those set forth in the agreements referenced in this Section. To the extent that this Agreement conflicts with any of the Employer's policies, procedures, rules or regulations, this Agreement shall supersede the other policies, procedures, rules or regulations.

(b) Use of Employee's Name and Likeness. You hereby irrevocably grant each member of the Activision Blizzard Group the right, but not the obligation, to use your name or likeness in any product made by the Activision Blizzard Group or for any publicity or advertising purpose in any medium now known or hereafter existing.

(c) Assignment. This Agreement and the rights and obligations hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable by you without the prior written consent of the Employer. The Employer may assign this Agreement or all or any part of its rights and obligations under this Agreement at any time and following such assignment all references to the Employer shall be deemed to refer to such assignee and the Employer shall thereafter have no obligation under this Agreement.

(d) No Conflict with Prior Agreements. You represent to the Employer that neither your commencement of employment under this Agreement nor the performance of your duties under this Agreement conflicts or will conflict with any contractual or legal commitment on your part to any third party, nor does it or will it violate or interfere with any rights of any third party. If you have acquired any confidential or proprietary information in the course of your prior employment or otherwise in connection with your provision of services to any entity outside the Activision Blizzard Group, during the Term you will fully comply with any duties to such entity then-applicable to you not to disclose or otherwise use such information.

(e) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the Employer and its successors and assigns, including successors by merger and operation of law. This Agreement shall also be binding on and inure to the benefit of you and your heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives.

(f) Waiver. No waiver by you or the Employer at any time of any breach by the other party of, or compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be implied from any course of dealing between or among the parties hereto or from any failure by any party hereto to assert its rights hereunder on any occasion or series of occasions.

(g) Expiration. This Agreement does not constitute a commitment of the Employer with regard to your employment, express or implied, other than to the extent expressly provided for herein. Upon the Expiration Date, or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9, the Employer shall not have any obligations with respect to your continued employment.

(h) Taxation. The Employer may withhold from any payments made under the Agreement all federal, state, city or other applicable taxes or amounts as shall be required or permitted pursuant to any law, governmental regulation or ruling or agreement with you.

(i) Immigration. In accordance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, employment under this Agreement is conditioned upon satisfactory proof of your identity and legal ability to work in the United States.

(j) Choice of Law. Except to the extent governed by federal law, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California or whatever other state in which you were last employed by the Employer, without regard to conflict of law principles.

(k) Arbitration. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and the Non-Disclosure Agreement referenced above, both parties agree that any dispute or controversy between them will be settled by final and binding arbitration pursuant to the terms of the Dispute Resolution Agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit B).

(l) Severability. It is expressly agreed by the parties that each of the provisions included in Section 8(g) is separate, distinct, and severable from the other and remaining provisions of Section 8(g), and that the invalidity or unenforceability of any Section 8(g) provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision or provisions of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under, or would require the commission of any act contrary to, existing or future laws effective during the Term, such provisions shall be fully severable, the Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a legal and enforceable provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible.

(m) Services Unique. You recognize that the services being performed by you under this Agreement are of a special, unique, unusual, extraordinary and intellectual character giving them a peculiar value, the loss of which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated for in damages in the event of a breach of this Agreement by you.

(n) Injunctive Relief. In the event of a breach of or threatened breach of the provisions of this Agreement regarding the exclusivity of your services and the provisions of Section 8, you agree that any remedy at law would be inadequate. Accordingly, you agree that the Employer is entitled to obtain injunctive relief for such breaches or threatened breaches in any court of competent jurisdiction. The injunctive relief provided for in Exhibit B and this Section 11(n) is in addition to, and is not in limitation of, any and all other remedies at law or in equity otherwise available to the applicable party. The parties agree to waive the requirement of posting a bond in connection with a court or arbitrator's issuance of an injunction.

(o) Remedies Cumulative. The remedies in this Agreement are not exclusive, and the parties shall have the right to pursue any other legal or equitable remedies to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

(p) Headings. The headings set forth herein are included solely for the purpose of identification and shall not be used for the purpose of construing the meaning of the provisions of this Agreement.

(q) Section 409A. To the extent applicable, it is intended that the Agreement comply with the provisions of Section 409A. The Agreement will be administered and interpreted in a manner consistent with this intent, and any provision that would cause the Agreement to fail to satisfy Section 409A will have no force and effect until amended to comply therewith (which amendment may be retroactive to the extent permitted by Section 409A). Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, to the extent any payment under this Agreement is subject to Section 409A, you shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Employer for purposes of the Agreement and no payments shall be due to you under the Agreement which are payable upon your termination of employment unless you would be considered to have incurred a "separation from service" from the Employer within the meaning of Section 409A. To the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A, amounts that would otherwise be payable and benefits that would otherwise be provided pursuant to the Agreement during the six-month period immediately following your termination of employment shall instead be paid on the first business day after the date that is six months following your termination of employment (or upon your death, if earlier). In addition, for purposes of the Agreement, each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided to you pursuant to the Agreement shall be construed as a separate identified payment for purposes of Section 409A. With respect to expenses eligible for reimbursement under the terms of the Agreement, (i) the amount of such expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in another taxable year and (ii) any reimbursements of such expenses shall be made no later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the related expenses were incurred, except, in each case, to the extent that the right to reimbursement does not provide for a “deferral of compensation” within the meaning of Section 409A; provided, however, that with respect to any reimbursements for any taxes to which you become entitled under the terms of the Agreement, the payment of such reimbursements shall be made by the Employer no later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which you remit the related taxes.

(r) Section 280G and Section 162(m). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that you receive any payments or distributions, whether payable, distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise, that constitute “parachute payments” within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, and the net after-tax amount of the parachute payment is less than the net after-tax amount if the aggregate payment to be made to you were three times your “base amount” (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code), less $1.00, then the aggregate of the amounts constituting the parachute payment shall be reduced to an amount that will equal three times your base amount, less $1.00. To the extent the aggregate of the amounts constituting the parachute payments are required to be so reduced, the amounts provided under Section 10 of this Agreement shall be reduced (if necessary, to zero) with amounts that are payable reduced first; provided, however, that in all events the payments provided under Section 10 of this Agreement which are not subject to Section 409A shall be reduced first. Similarly, you agree that no payments or distributions, whether payable, distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be made to you if the Employer reasonably anticipates that Section 162(m) of the Code would prevent the Employer from receiving a deduction for such payment. If, however, any payment is not made pursuant to the previous sentence, the Employer shall make such payment as soon as practicable in the first calendar year that it reasonably determines that it can do so and still receive a deduction for such payment. The determinations to be made with respect to this Section 11(r) shall be made by a certified public accounting firm designated by the Employer.

(s) Survivability. The provisions of Sections 8, 10, 11, and 12, as well as Exhibits A and B, shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(t) Counterparts and Electronic Signature. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which shall constitute one and the same document. The Agreement may be executed by facsimile or other electronic method. If electronic methods are used by the parties to execute this Agreement, the parties agree that the place of sending and receiving this Agreement shall be in the State of California.

(u) Legal Counsel. You acknowledge that you have been given the opportunity to consult with legal counsel or any other advisor of your own choosing regarding this Agreement. You understand and agree that any attorney retained by the Employer, the Activision Blizzard Group or any member of management who has discussed any term or condition of this Agreement with you or your advisor is only acting on behalf of the Employer and not on your behalf.

(v) Right to Negotiate. You hereby acknowledge that you have been given the opportunity to participate in the negotiation of the terms of this Agreement. You acknowledge and confirm that you have read this Agreement and fully understand its terms and contents, and that you are entering into this agreement voluntarily, with sufficient time to consider the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(w) No Broker. You have given no indication, representation or commitment of any nature to any broker, finder, agent or other third party to the effect that any fees or commissions of any nature are, or under any circumstances might be, payable by the Activision Blizzard Group in connection with your employment under this Agreement.

12. Indemnification

The Employer agrees that it shall indemnify and hold you harmless to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law from and against any and all third-party liabilities, costs and claims, and all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by you in connection therewith by reason of the fact that you are or were employed by Activision Blizzard, including, without limitation, all costs and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by you in defense of litigation arising out of your employment hereunder.

13. Notices

All notices which either party is required or may desire to give the other shall be in writing and given either personally or by depositing the same in the United States mail addressed to the party to be given notice as follows:

To the Employer: Activision Blizzard, Inc.
3100 Ocean Park Boulevard
Santa Monica, California 90405
Attention: Chief Legal Officer

To You: Armin Zerza
(to be sent to last known home
Address on file with Human Resources)

Either party may by written notice designate a different address for giving of notices. The date of mailing of any such notices shall be deemed to be the date on which such notice is given.

CERTIFICATION

I, Robert A. Kotick, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Activision Blizzard, Inc.;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
  - (a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
  - (b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
  - (c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
  - (d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an Annual Report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
  - (a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
  - (b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
